Mr. Shantz's Talk Is Heard with Interest

Guest day meeting of the Garden club of Deerfield was held Wednesday, May 21, at "Burrwood," Brier Hill, Deerfield, the home of Mrs. Frank Burroughs, with whom Mrs. Scribner and Mrs. Metcalf assisted as hostesses. More than fifty attended, including members of the Garden clubs of Glencoe, Wilmette, Ravinia, Evanston, Lake Forest and Bannockburn. The Brier Hill forest setting was most appropriate to the occasion of Mr. Orpheus M. Shantz' talk on Nature. Mr. Shantz is a well known naturalist, botanist and poet and from the wealth of his travels and experiences he held an eagerly listening audience for an hour or more. Particularly interesting were his poems, the accounts of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and his story of tree growth with photographs. Tea and a social hour followed Mr. Shantz talk, concluding an afternoon accounted as one of the most successful guest day meetings.
