Plans Are Complete For Flower Show

The schedule of exhibits for the Flower Show of the Highland Park Garden Study club, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman, 306 Hazel avenue, is completed.

It offers much variety that is conducive for gardeners to exhibit their garden flowers in interesting arrangements.

As the Garden club is co-operating with the American Iris society there are many classes for Iris.

Specimen blooms other than Iris, three stalks of each to be exhibited in section and flower arrangements for porch, living-room and plant stands is another section.

Mr. Robert Clark will give a cup for the most outstanding bloom of the entire show.

There are three classes in the table section, occasional table for living room, informal dinner table and afternoon refreshment tray.

Entries are in the hands of Mrs. Robert Clark. Anyone is invited to exhibit. The show will be open from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m. There will be a small admission fee.

40 and 8 Install New Officers at Banquet

The Lake County Voiture 604 of the "40 and 8" has started its year's activity in true 40 and 8 style. New officers were installed at a banquet held at the Viking home at Gurnee to which the ladies were also invited. No bunco was played, but a good time was enjoyed.

Grand Chef de Gare E. H. Burns of Champaign will make an official visit on June 21, bringing with him the "wrecking crew" of Champaign County Voiture. This crew has a reputation for live wires and they are bringing a truck load of equipment along to back up their reputation.

Fifteen applications for membership have been received and at least twenty more are expected before the next meeting on June 6, which is expected to be the largest "wreck" ever held in Lake county.

Highland Park Census Figures Not Yet Ready

Report from the office of the district supervisor of U. S. Census at Evanston yesterday was that no figures on Highland Park were yet available, but that the enumerator in this city expected to have it finished by Friday. Highland Park is the only town or city in the county on which no report has yet been received, and all the rest of the county with the exception of Libertyville township outside the village of Libertyville, has reported. With these still out, the total in the county is close to 100,000, and when Highland Park and Libertyville townships are in the prediction is that the county total will exceed 115,000.
