

Local Resident Is Buried in St. Louis

Mr. F. J. Sanford Farrell, district manager of the Chicago office of the Butterick Publishing Co., of New York, passed away on May 23 at Grant hospital, Chicago. The burial took place in St. Louis.

Mr. Farrell resided at 1412 Sheridan road and is survived by his widow Helen E., and two children James and Patricia.

Held Election Saturday

On Saturday between one and six o'clock, the election of Chicago District Council officers of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America will be held in Masonic temple.

Sunday Excursions on the North Shore Line

Suburban communities north of Chicago along the lake shore to Great Lakes are being furnished Sunday excursion service to Kenosha, Racine and Milwaukee by the North Shore line. Since Sunday, June 1, according to announcement by R. S. Amis, general passenger agent.

Special reduced rates for the round trip have been placed in effect for this new service. Persons taking advantage of these facilities will journey over the Shore Line route north to North Chicago Junction, where direct connections will be made with the northbound Chicago-Milwaukee excursion special operating each Sunday over the Skokie Valley route.

Attend Convention at Rock Island

The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Hedlund are leaving today (Thursday) for Rock Island where they will attend the opening session of the Augustana Synodical meeting, Friday morning. Many very serious and vital questions are to be considered at this meeting, and every pastor and every congregation is to send a lay delegate to an open synod at the convention. On Sunday some 34 men will be ordained to the ministry.

The business of the synod will begin Monday morning as the opening of the synod is confined to the ministerium. Mr. William Berg will represent the Zion Lutheran church of Highwood. Mrs. Berg is planning to make the trip with her husband. The convention will close June 13.

Enter Exhibits at Kenilworth Flower Show

Mrs. Milton Hardacre, Mrs. Herman Black and Mrs. James Ewell have entered exhibits for the Ravinia Garden club at the Kenilworth Flower Market. The Ravinia Garden club will also be represented at the Highland Park Flower Show at the home of Mrs. Goodwin on June 7.

Deerpath Theatre's Program Next Week; Feature Attractions

Deerpath theatre at Lake Forest offers another fine program for the ensuing week, with several notable features. The daily list follows:

Friday, June 6—Buster Keaton in "Free and Easy" with William Haines and Anita Page, Lionel Barrymore. Plenty of laughs.

Saturday, June 7—Matinee and evening, Constance Bennett in "Rich People" with Regis Toomey, Robert Ames, Mahlon Hamilton, etc. Charming picture story with unusual plot.

Sunday, June 8—Continuous, 2 to 11, Herbert Brennon's production, "Lumox," based on by Fanny Hurst, featuring Winifred Westover, Ben Lyon and William Collier, Jr.

Monday and Tuesday, June 9 and 10—Gary Cooper and Mary Brian in "Only the Brave."

Wednesday and Thursday, June 11 and 12—"Montana Moon" with Joan Crawford, John Mack Brown, Dorothy Sebastian, Ricardo Cortez, Karl Dane, Cliff Edwards.

Friday, June 13—Rin-Tin-Tin in "Man Hunter."

Cartoons in sound, comedies and other supplemental features at each show.

Serve Dinner Tonight

The ladies of the Bethany Evangelical church will serve a roast beef dinner from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock this evening (Thursday). The public is invited to attend.

Bakery Sale June 7

On Saturday, June 7th, the women of St. Johns Evangelical church will hold a bakery sale at Sobey's market. There will be a large assortment of cakes, cookies, bread and pastry. The sale will open in the morning.

Present Students in Recitals Tuesday

Students of the Marley School of Music, Ethel Lathrop Marley, director, will be presented in recitals on Tuesday afternoon and evening, June 10, in the parish house of Trinity Episcopal church on East Laurel avenue in Highland Park.

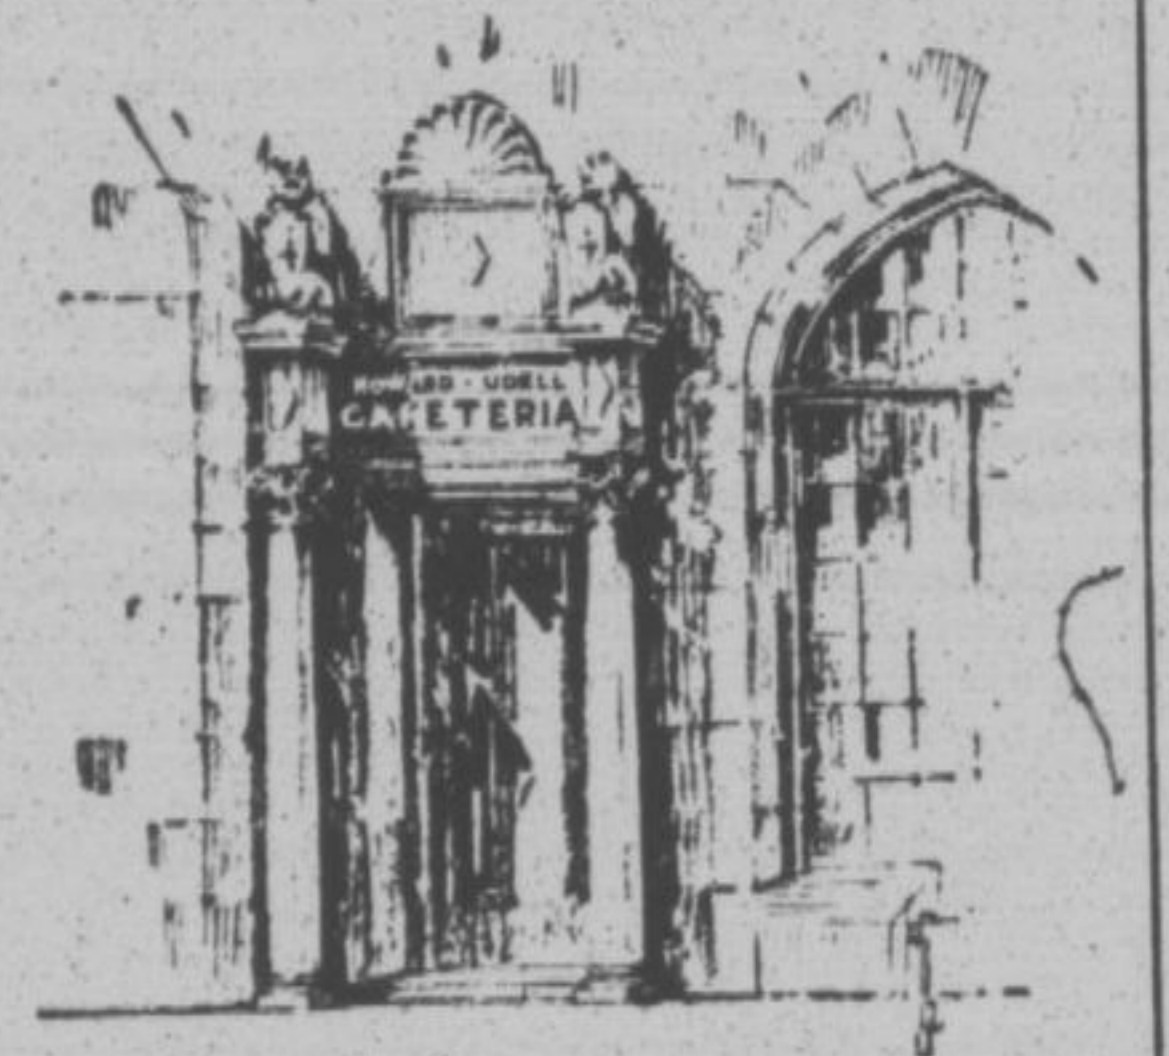

The afternoon program will commence at four. Those appearing are David Allison, Francis Allen, Patricia Clark, Janet and John Davidson, Josephine Dowdall, Betty Jean Fabian, Mildred Gail, Helen Graves, Dorothy and Ruth Herbst, Lon Hill III, James Kirk, Betty Rogers, Geraldine Sanders, James Smith, Kerwyn Smith, and Evelyn Wayne.

The evening program will commence promptly at eight. Those appearing are Marion Bard, Jean Butz, Virginia Coulter, Margaret Coxe, Esther Davidson, Pauline Davis, Isabel Denzel, Janet Gaidzik, Doris Hansen, Louise Neumann, Frances and Patricia Odell, Mary Ellen Palmer, Sarah Paris, Irvin, Mary Lee and Nancy Reay, Mary Smith, Barbara and Jean Tennant, and Lucille Wright.

The public is most cordially invited. There will be a five weeks' summer term, information concerning which will gladly be given on application.

Building Quarters for New Unit, Fort Sheridan

Extensive preparations are being made at Fort Sheridan for the arrival of the 61st regiment of Coast Artillery, now on the march here from Fort Monroe, Va. In the south section of the post tract, near Route 422, a large section of ground has been levelled and cement footings have been put in for quarters for the men of the new unit, which is expected to arrive in a few days. The new "shacks," as the men at the fort call them, will be completed as soon as possible.

Howard-Udell CAFETERIA

is a

Pleasant Place to Eat

UDELL BUILDING

West Central Avenue

GARNETT'S

SIX STORES

Smart
frocks
in a Special Sale

Every dress in this sale is a fashion success of the season! Every dress is a becoming wearable dress that you can put on right now with proud assurance of its smartness. Every dress was made to sell at a much higher price, thus you will at once agree the values are decidedly above the ordinary at this price.

- Frocks for Business Wear
- Frocks for Street Wear
- Frocks for Travel and Vacation Wear

$12.95