Deerfield Library

Suppose there were no books!
No books to read in cozy nooks!
And teach the art of being kind.

No books to while an hour away
To link today with yesterday
No books to charm us for awhile
To bring a tear or lure a smile.

But there are books, praise God above!
If we have books and we have love
We can dispense with other things
'Tis books, not crowns, that make men kings.

The following list of fiction recently received at the public library will be of interest to adult readers:
Son of John Winteringham—Piper.
Candle in the Wilderness—Bachel-lor.

Assistants Chosen for Summer at Library

It is needless to take up your time in emphasizing the big factor the public library is in the welfare of our community and one of the secrets of its success has been the willingness and hearty support which has been given to it by the different chaperones who assist Mrs. Wolf one afternoon or evening a week.

The names listed below are the folks we are asking to act as chaperones one evening a week and the date after your name is the date on which we hope you will be able to serve.

Will you accept this responsibility? If you cannot serve on the date mentioned, we will ask you to either exchange dates with some of the others on your list, or get a substitute.

Very cordially yours,
West Deerfield Township
Public Library.

By Carl Christensen, secretary.
