Present Award For Essay Contest Friday

Impressive ceremonies under the direction of local Post American Legion marked Memorial day in Deerfield.

The program opened on the school grounds when Mr. C. E. Bates principal presented the awards to winners of patriotic essay contest. Shirley Clark won first; Mary Desmond, second and Edith Sherman, third.

The essays were judged by a graduate of Northwestern university who will have charge of the English department in Deerfield Grammar school next year.

The main address was given by Robert C. Gullie of North Chicago, past district commander.

Following the exercises, all paraded to the Deerfield cemetery where there was a salute to the dead and wreaths placed by children on the graves of departed heroes of all wars.
