Monday, June 16:
Our Daily Vacation Bible school will begin on this day. The school will be held for a period of two weeks or 10 days, every day from June 16 to June 27 with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, June 21 and 22. Each session will begin at 9:30 and last until 11:30 a. m.

Two churches are co-operating in making this Vacation Bible school possible, namely, the Highland Park Methodist and our own. According to present plans, the school will be held in the Highland Park church during the first week and in the Highwood church during the second week.

In selecting the curriculum and the instructors for the school, thought has been given not only to what will be attractive, pleasant, and interesting for the pupils but also to what will be most real value to them. There will be a varied program consisting of music, singing, recreational games, and Bible study. All children between the ages of 4 and 14 are welcome. Remember the time and place of the first session, namely, 9:30 a. m., Monday, June 16 at the Highland Park Methodist Church, North avenue and Laretta place.

First United Evangelical Church
C. G. Unangst, Pastor

Last Sunday was another good day at the First United Evangelical church. The Children's day exercises brought out a large attendance in the morning and the program was most interesting. Favorable comments were made on the character and quality of the work of the school as revealed by exercises. A fine class of little folks graduated from the primary department and a most promising group of young people was advanced from the junior department of the Sunday school. Little Jerry Donn, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. McCoy was christened. The choir under the direction of Prof. Dinkeloo presented a fine collection of musical numbers. Each selection contained a vital gospel message. Miss Kathleen Paine presided at the piano and Raymond Fidler at the organ. A gospel song leader who was present expressed his appreciation of the program. He said, "That was good singing." The pastor gave a brief message on the experiences of Job. Wealth, health, friends, in fact everything that we naturally hold dear in this life, was taken from him, and in the midst of his hard experiences it is said that he sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. God will preserve us in the midst of the trials of life if we will trust him.

Rev. H. Framer Smith, D.D., of Evanston, the director of the Pastor's course at the Moody Bible institute, will preach on next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Many have heard him over the radio; now the people will have the great privilege of hearing him more directly. His visit to our church will doubtless attract an unusually large attendance.

Lillian Mitchell will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p. m. Topic, "How Great Leaders Served Their Generation." Acts 20:17-35; Eph. 3:14-19. These meetings are having an encouraging attendance.

The Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m. Our workers are faithful and efficient. We aim to interest people of all ages. A most profitable time is in store for all who will attend the school on next Sunday. Lesson subject: "Jesus on the Cross." Matt. 27:33-50.

Our Sunday school picnic will be held on Saturday, June 28, at Sunset Park. The committees are planning the details and a delightful time for young and old is anticipated.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Daily Vacation Bible School
Our Daily Vacation Bible school will open promptly at 9 o'clock on next Monday morning. The sessions will last two and one-half hours a day, continuing for about three weeks, five days a week, closing each day at 11:30 a. m. The children of the community, not attending any other school, are cordially invited. In addition to our own capable teachers, Miss Margaret Phelps and Miss Mildred Backman, both of Chicago, have been engaged. Under their able direction the school promises to be very successful.

First Presbyterian Church
Deerfield

Mark J. Andrews, Pastor
This Sunday will be observed as Children's day. As in former years the Church school service at 9:30 will be omitted, the Church school uniting with the congregation at the service at 10:30—(Note the time.) This will be an outstanding service with special music by the choir and songs and recitations by the Church school departments. Infant children will be consecrated by the sacrament of Baptism. Parents desiring this rite of the church for their children should speak to the pastor as early as possible. The offering will be devoted toward the support of our Vacation school project.

The young people will gather at 7:30 p. m. for their usual meeting.

The Vacation school began very auspiciously last Monday morning with an enrollment of 57. The work will become more and more interesting as the course proceeds. There is still time for new scholars to be enrolled.

A cordial welcome to all the services and activities of this church.

Bethany Evangelical Church
H. F. Siemsen, Pastor

Our Children's day services were a success in every way. The children took their parts in a very able way and the audience was very appreciative of their work. The offering was splendid.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet this afternoon (Thursday) at the home of Mr. G. L. Brand, all the ladies of the church are invited to come.

The services on the coming Sunday will be held at their regular hours. Church school at 9:45; morning worship at 11 a. m. E.L.C.E. at 7:15, and the evening service at 8 p. m.

The pastor will emphasize another phase of Pentecost in the morning service and will bring a message for youth in the evening. All not attending church or Sunday school elsewhere will find a very warm welcome at the Bethany church.

Our Daily Vacation Bible school will have its opening session next Monday morning at 9 a. m. It will be a three weeks school. A fine group of instructors have been attained and our school promises to be a good one in every way. We look forward to a splendid enrollment.

On Thursday evening June 19, Rev. A. J. Byas our presiding elder will be here to participate in the first quarterly conference of the new church year. The officials of this church are looking forward to this conference in so far that they have some very enviable reports to give for the first three months of the church calendar.

Communion will be observed both in the morning and evening on Sunday June 22.

A fine group of boys and girls have enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible school which meets each day except Saturday from 9 till 11 o'clock in the church. A varied program of worship, object lessons, Bible and character stories, religious slides, catechism and dramatization is being given. For the hand craft period courses are being given in pastel painting, art fibre weaving and manual training. This promises to be one of the best schools ever conducted by this church. It is not too late to enroll and we urge all boys and girls not attending another school to take advantage of these splendid courses.
