PRICE VERSUS QUALITY

Which Shall It Be?

Again — a dry cleaning price war is on. The guns of certain cleaners are belching forth a barrage of dollar cleaning propositions, camouflaged by promises of quality workmanship and what not . . . but—

THERE'S DANGER IN DOLLAR CLEANING

Dollar cleaning means this—corners must be cut, cheap ingredients must be resorted to, work must be rushed through on the "sweat shop" basis, with your garments subjected to extra wear and tear—and all this to make it seem that you are saving a possible 25c or 50c.

Whereas—by paying the Shore Line $1.25 for men's suits and $1.50 and up for ladies' dresses, your garments are handled with painstaking care, besides being cleaned in Miracleclean, which is so pure, so odorless, so crystal clear that perfect and superior cleaning is a natural result. Furthermore, Miracleclean, is economical because it makes clothes wear and stay clean longer. Remember—only at the Shore Line Cleaners can you get Miracleclean in Highland Park.
