Gilbert of Lamont, Okla. Miss English is Mrs. Brush's sister and has spent quite some time both in Highland Park and Chicago where she has made many friends. The bride was charming in white chiffon over satin, wearing a veil made cap style and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and daisies. She was attended by Miss Florence Miller of Nokomis, Ill., a college friend, who wore figured chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and daisies. The bridegroom was attended by the Rev. Herbert Keen of Austin, Texas, also a college friend. The beautiful and impressive double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Mark Moore of Evanston, and the vows were taken kneeling beneath a canopy of flowers. Mrs. Baker Baldrige of Chicago sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" with Mrs. Charles Kloepper of Chicago at the piano. The Lohengren Wedding March was used. A wedding breakfast was served to twenty-two relatives and friends. Miss English is a graduate of the Eastern Illinois Teachers' college at Charleston, Ill. Mr. Gilbert graduated from the University of Oklahoma and has been for three years at the Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston. Immediately following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert started, amid showers of rice and best wishes, for a six weeks motor trip, after which they will be at home in Evanston.
