"Ladies of Leisure"
at Alcyon June 23-25;
Other Coming Features

Mae Tinee gave "Ladies of Leisure" four stars and describes its qualities thus:

"As adopted from the Belasco stage play it is the keen and sympathetic study of a human soul that gropes its way from darkness to light. It tells the story of a girl who never had a chance, was thrown one, seized it and clung to it desperately. This talker does for Barbara Stanwyck, what 'In Old Arizona' did for Warner Baxter. It makes a good player a great one. There has rarely been on stage or screen a more believable and appealing figure than her Kay Arnold."

The story carries you from one intensely human situation to another, never losing its grip on your sympathy and imagination.

Staging is excellent; photography beyond reproach and the production is generous with laughs, tears and suspense.

"Ladies of Leisure" merits your attendance. It bears the trade mark—Genuine.

The current attraction is Charles "Buddy" Rogers in "Young Eagles." Saturday "Lord Byron of Broadway."

Sunday, "Spring Is Here," with Lawrence Gray, Bernice Claire, Alexander Gray, and Louise Fazenda. The picture is a comedy farce and assures you many laughs.

Monday to Wednesday, "Ladies of Leisure."

Thursday and Friday, William Powell as Philo Vance in the latest and by far most thrilling S. S. Van Dine story, "The Benson Murder Case."
