LIBRARY

Vacation Reading

A book to read! On the boat; on the train; between sets; after dinner; when it's too hot to play golf; too cold to swim; the library book will gloriously save the day. Novels, short stories, essays, drama, verse, biography, travel and history guarantee hours of delightful reading.

Why not plan your summer reading now, and include on your list some of the books you have been wanting to read for so long. A vacation privilege is offered by the library between June 1 and October 1 to patrons leaving the city. Special arrangements may be made to borrow most books for the duration of your vacation. Members of the library staff will be glad to assist you.

After Graduation

For most boys and girls, graduating from high school marks the end of formal education. Many of them discontinue the use of the library at that time.

The Highland Park Public Library congratulates you at Commencement, at the commencement of a life of larger usefulness and wider knowledge. The library reminds you that, whether it is to be college or commerce or industry, your best life is just beginning, and that for the best life you will continue to need books.

"Life itself will teach you many many things, but your own existence can be only the smallest segment of the great arc of existence. Good books will open to you revealing glimpses of the past, help you to interpret the present, and show you visions of the future."

"Your library offers you all its treasures of wisdom and delight. Many of its books you have read. Some of them, perhaps, you tried to know too soon. Try them again. Your mind need never stop growing. Feed it good food."

New Books

The advertising of the "book clubs" has caused such an enormous demand for a very few titles that no public library can purchase them in sufficient quantities. Instead of buying 500 copies of All Quiet on the Western Front to satisfy and immediate but temporary interest, the library must apportion its funds to include many other books. Otherwise it would soon have hundreds of idle copies of the recent "best sellers," and nothing else to offer.

—Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh.

Children's Summer Room

Beginning June 16, the children's room will be open every day from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 6. A cooler spot in Highland Park it would be difficult to find on a hot day. The picture books are waiting in all their colors for little hands to turn their pages, and many a hero and heroine await their turn to rouse a chuckle or send a shiver down the spine. Bring your summer reading list or let the children's librarian help to make one that will add many happy hours to the summer weeks.

Ravinia Opera

Don't forget that the library has all the librettos of the operas to be given at Ravinia this summer. Also many books containing the stories of the opera if you decide to go at the last minute and wish to read a brief account.

Have You Seen?

From a New Garden, by Mrs. Francis King. A collection of charming garden talks which have appeared in various periodicals. Of special interest is her suggested garden library.

Legion Auxiliary

Holds Meeting June 9

At the home of Mrs. F. H. Meyer on Waukegan road, the Deerfield unit American Legion auxiliary convened for the regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, June 9 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. C. C. Kapschull was the assisting hostess.

Correspondence received from three orphans at Normal adopted by the unit were read by the Child Welfare chairman, Mrs. W. Tennerman.

The president, Mrs. Harry Maw and Americanism chairman, Mrs. A. W. Knaak were chosen as delegates to the National Defence Congress, which was held at the LaSalle hotel, Chicago on Flag day, Saturday, June 14.

Mrs. Lucy Brown, eighth district committee women attended as a substitute for Mrs. Grace Tibbals, state rehabilitation chairman, who was scheduled to speak at the meeting.

Mrs. Brown commended the unit on its achievements and endeavor to carry out the program of the state department. She further stated that local unit was 100 per cent in rehabilitation. Delicious refreshments served by the hostesses brought a most interesting meeting to a close.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Farner on Monday evening, July 14.
