Libertyville Students Members Honor Society

Nine honor students of the Libertyville high school, members of the 1930 graduating class, have been chosen for membership in the Roosevelt chapter of the National Honor society of secondary schools, which elects members from schools throughout the United States.

Members of the 1930 class chosen were Marion Drummond, Helen Ge-Long, Katherine Gridley, Irene Numsen, Helen Schwandt, Constance Rollin, Hulda Schwarman, Allan Smith and Herman Nelson.

Students are chosen for membership in the society for scholarship, leadership, service and character.

Certificates were presented to 279 pupils in graduation exercises held by the eighth grades of the eight public schools in Waukegan last week. There are 12 less graduates this year than last, due to the larger number of mid-year graduations.
