

The Highland Park Press

VOLUME XIX

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1930

NUMBER 17

F. L. CHENEY DIES; FORMER COUNCILMAN

City Commissioner 8 Years and Candidate for Mayor in 1927; Career

Frank L. Cheney, 60, resident of Highland Park for 24 years, city commissioner for eight years and candidate for mayor three years ago, died Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Highland Park hospital, following a serious surgical operation performed Monday night. He was taken ill Thursday of last week and was removed to the hospital from his home, 1006 North Sheridan road, on Monday.

Mr. Cheney was one of Highland Park's best known and most public spirited citizens, and gave largely of his time and talents for the service of the city for years. He was the first president of the Highland Park Community Service, former president of Briergate Golf club, served on the public utility franchise committee appointed by the city council in 1916, was elected commissioner in 1919 and served four years in charge of streets and public improvements.

Eight Years on Council

In 1923 he was re-elected commissioner and served as vice-president of the city council and in charge of accounts and finances of the city. In the spring of 1927 he was candidate for mayor to succeed Mayor Samuel M. Hastings and was defeated by Benjamin F. Lewis, the present mayor.

Mr. Cheney's service to his country was on a par with that to his home city. He was an officer in the Span-
(Continued on page 43)

Local Police Catch Auto Thieves Here

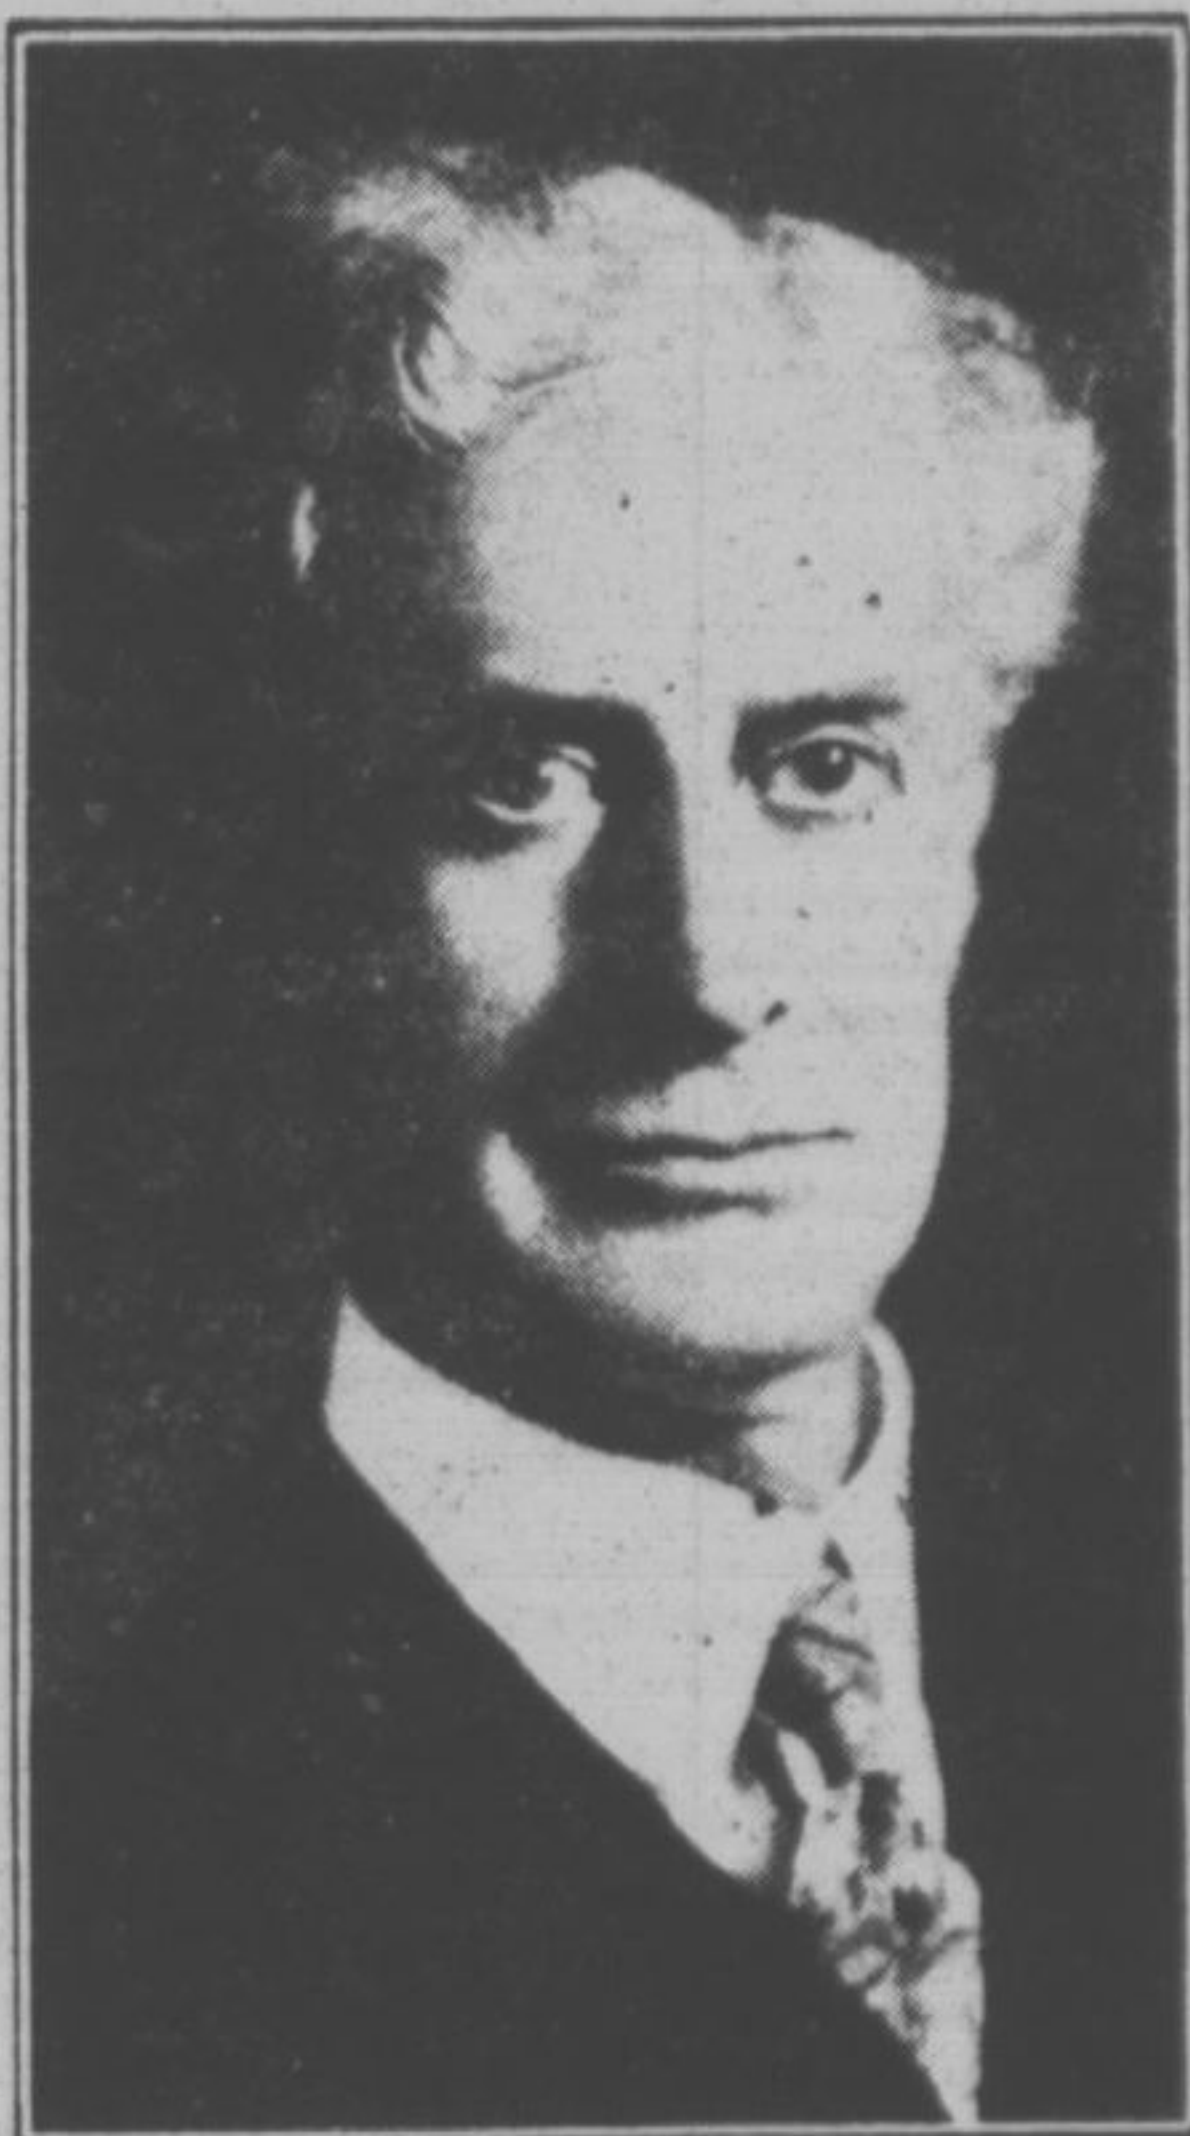

Vigilance of Highland Park police resulted in the capture of two New York auto thieves here Monday night. The men will probably be taken back to New York on federal charges of interstate transportation of stolen cars. They gave their names as Anthony Padworski and Neil Pellaccio, of Beacon, New York.

The two were arrested here on suspicion. A checkup on the Ford roadster in which they were riding revealed that it had been stolen in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last Friday night. The local police are in communication with Poughkeepsie authorities now regarding the disposition of the men.

Mrs. Franke Dies

Mrs. Adolphine Franke, mother of Mrs. Herman Fry, died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, 224 North Linden avenue, aged 75 years. The funeral service will be held Friday at 2:30 at the chapel in Graceland cemetery.

Served His City

All Highland Park sorrows at the death of former Commissioner Frank L. Cheney who passed away Wednesday afternoon at the H. P. hospital following a surgical operation Monday night.

Community Day July 4 At Ravinia, Plans Now Under Way For Event

Ravinia Community Day will be celebrated July 4th this year at the Ravinia school grounds.

Plans for the day are being made by the Civics committee of the Ravinia Woman's club who have charge of the affair this year, under the direction of Mrs. Godfrey Eyler, newly elected chairman.

There will be the usual features for the afternoon; the children's costume parade, races, games, a picnic supper, bonfire and fireworks.

All who come are urged to bring their own basket supper, however, there will be coffee, doughnuts, ice cream and soft drinks available on the grounds.

Garden Party June 30 Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Edmund J. McCarthy of 832 S. Sheridan road, is opening her home and grounds to a garden party June 30th in celebration of the second anniversary of the Woman's City club, 49th ward branch.

Mrs. Charles Grede of 738 Dobson street, Evanston, is in charge of arrangements. There will be bridge and five hundred in the open for those who wish to play. Members are bringing box lunches and coffee and ice cream will be served by the hostess.

H. P. Music Club Has Delightful Meeting Wednesday Afternoon

The Highland Park Music club enjoyed a most delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Baldwin, on Lake place, Wednesday afternoon, June 25. The program, which was given by young people, was well selected, ambitious in character, and well executed. After the program refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Baldwin, assisted by Mrs. Carl Roth, Mrs. E. R. Cole, Mrs. John Maelstrom, and Mrs. F. A. Watkins.

The program follows in detail:

Piano
Prelude, Corale and Fugue Caesar Franck
Roger Balke

Reading
The Bean of Bath Constance deArcy McKay
Jacqueline Keaster

Piano Trio
1st Movement, No. 4, Trio - Mozart
Virginia Engels, Barbara Balke
Oswaldo Saille

Baritone
Le Cor A. Fleigier
Jenn Burleigh
The Floral Dance Katie Moss
(founded on an old Cornish air)

Invidius Bruno Huhn
Bryant Buckingham

Octet (under direction of Helen M. Mannings)
Menuet from "Le Opera Bernice" Handel
Russian Waltz Suite Andreefe

The Orchid
Bluette, Drigo
The Faun
Virginia Engels, Oswaldo Saille,
Willard Ericson, Janet Gaidzik,
John Horn, Clarence Mannings,
Robert Williams, Ruth Pardee

Soprano
I Love a Little Cottage O'Hara
Mrs. Frank Horn
accompanied by the octet

Santi Bros. Wins 16th Consecutive Game

Santi Bros., again is victorious in a series of three more games, defeating the Roaches Mountain Goats 7-1, the Highland Park Press 9-1, and the Odd Fellows 5-4. All of the games were hard fought. Chioni of Santi Bros., led the team in batting and brilliant fielding. The team has scored its sixteenth consecutive victory. Call H. P. 117 for more twilight games.

Fire Damages Office on West Subdivision

Fire in the office of the Romano subdivision west of the city Monday caused damage of about $100, the firemen report. It was soon extinguished. The firemen had another call also to put out a blaze in an auto and otherwise they have had a quiet week.

Junior Tennis Tourney at Sunset Park June 28

A junior tennis tournament will be conducted at the Sunset park tennis courts beginning Saturday morning, June 28. These courts are in good condition, and each contestant is asked to bring his own racquet, if possible.

SCHOOL FUND DRIVE STILL NEEDS $3,000

Committee Makes Final Appeal To All Citizens to Aid; July 3, Last Day

With $12,000 subscribed and $3,000 needed to put the Elm Place-Green Bay road school fund over the top, the citizens' committee has sent out a final plea for contributions with the slogan of "Help a child to help himself." The closing date for the campaign has been set at July 3rd. It is the belief of the committee that everyone will have had an opportunity of subscribing to the fund by that time.

Print Grand Honor Roll

The steadily growing list of names on the honor roll that has appeared in the Press each week, will be printed in its final form on July 10, when it is expected that last minute subscribers will swell the total figure to the required $15,000. The names to
(Continued on page 47)

E. A. Laing Wins Low Hole Gross Tourney, Sunset Valley Club

On Saturday, June 21, in an 18 hole low gross tournament at Sunset Valley, Ed A. Laing walked off with honors on the basis of a gross 75 net.

Right behind Laing were Art McCaffrey, Walker Flinn, M. Gutman, and Ed Prosser, all with scores of 82. The play was spread out, and Laing had no trouble taking the prize.

Among the events of the day at Sunset Valley was a 68 by Art Olson. Olson has been shooting beautiful golf all season, and it was expected that he would go way below par before the season was over. He started out Saturday with three pars on the first three holes, 3-3-4, and finished the first nine with a 33, three under par. On the second nine he continued to run out par golf, and finished with a 35, one under par.

Highland Park Elks Have Golf Tournament

Members of the Highland Park Elks lodge enjoyed their first official golf tournament yesterday on the course of the Columbian Country club. The lodge was well represented by players on the course, and those who went report a very fine course and a delightful time.

Copy For Press Must Be In Early Next Week

Because of the Independence Day holiday Friday, July 4, the Press will be printed a day earlier next week, and all news and advertising copy must be in the office as early as possible in the week to ensure publication. If you have any news or advertising for the Press next week it is essential that it be sent in EARLY.