Vacation church school—This week several new helpers have come into the work of the vacation church school held in Presbyterian church. Mrs. Frank Trangmar, who has recently moved to Ravinia, and who is a trained nurse by profession, will be in the school each day to guard our health and assist in the work of the school. Grace Gatewood will assist Miss Cobb with the little folks, and Elizabeth Morris will also help Miss Cobb and assist with the handcraft of the girls. Two of our helpers, Mary Belfield and Madge Hawkins, have gone away on their vacation. We are sorry to lose them. On Thursday the junior and intermediate groups enjoyed a trip to Ravinia and heard the concert, and on Tuesday the junior department had a beach party. The attendance has been very good, for practically all of the children have been present every day since the school opened.

The Sunday school picnic at Sunset Park last Saturday afternoon was a happy occasion. The weather was ideal and the attendance was the largest we have had for some years. Everybody had a good time.

Dr. B. P. Fitzwater of the Moody Bible Institute will preach on next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Do not fail to hear him preach.

The Bible school meets at 9:30 a. m. The lessons for the next quarter will direct our attention to representative men and women of the Old Testament. They will be very interesting. Next Sunday's lesson will present "Abraham, a Pioneer of Faith" being based on Gen. 12:1-3; 13:1-12; Heb. 11:8-10. In addition to the regular order of exercises very interesting special features are frequently presented as a part of the program. Visitors always receive a welcome.

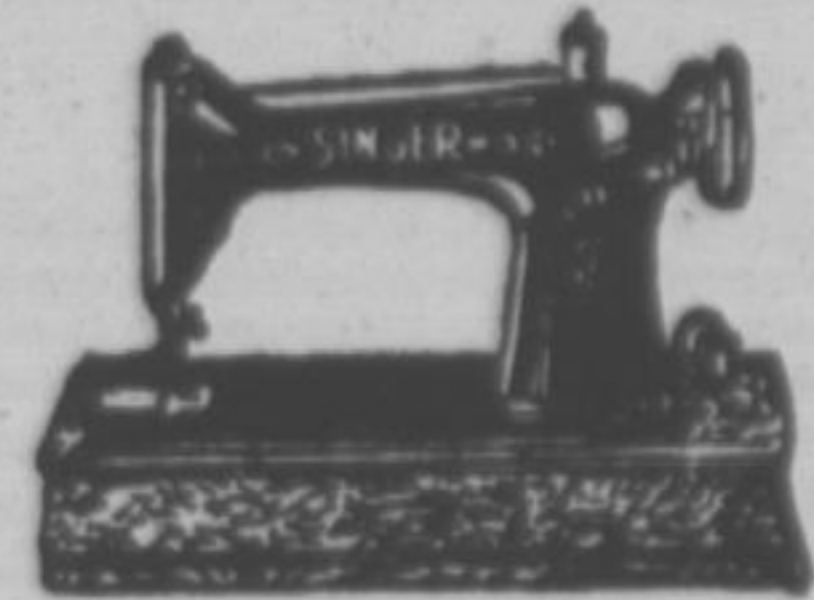

The Christian Endeavor society holds a very helpful meeting for the young people at 7:00 p. m. The topic for next Sunday evening is, "Joys and dangers when away from home." It is a vacation topic. Come to this meeting; bring your friends.

The two classes will hold a union prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The Sunday school board will meet at the close of the prayer meeting.

Attendance at the daily vacation

Bible school continues to be very good. The enrollment has exceeded one hundred and the average will be about seventy. The session on Monday was one of the best we have had during the entire period of the school. At this writing we are looking forward to a happy time at the closing exercises which will be held Wednesday evening of this week.

"The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works." Titus 2:11-14.
