

I'm From Missouri; You'll Have to Show Me

That was the statement of a new comer in Highland Park when he came in the other day to see our fire and burglar proof vault.

Of course we were glad to show him. He was greatly interested in our massive door with its triple time-locks and other devices to make it safe. He was surprised when we told him of the tons of concrete and steel in the walls and the electric burglar alarm system.

He was pleased to learn that an experienced man was in charge constantly and that the cost of a box was less than a cent a day.

Of course he rented a box.

Let us show you, too.
