First Church of Christ, Scientist

Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healings are given. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m., and is open to pupils between the ages of four and twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson mon, "Sacrament."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central avenue, where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The reading room is open every weekday from nine in the morning until six in the evening, on Wednesday until 7:30 and on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

Redeemer Lutheran Church

West Central Avenue
W. F. Suhr, Pastor

The regular meeting of the congregation will take place at the church on Friday evening of this week.

The German services announced for 11:30 are so poorly attended that they are discontinued during the months of July and August.

We usually discontinued the sessions of the Sunday school during August, because so many teachers and children would be away on their vacations. But this year the Sunday school will be dismissed from next Sunday until the Sunday after Labor day.

Thus remains the main service beginning at 10:30. Most of our people who prefer the German language in worship can readily accommodate themselves to the English language. And of the children it is expected that they also attend morning worship, to implant the church going habit in their youth. Furthermore, the children attending the service will be credited in the award system of our Sunday school.

Go to Church

Don't think about it—Do it.

Because it is an act which will bring you rich returns.

St. John's Evangelical Church
(Evangelical Synod of America)

The Bethany Evangelical Church
H. F. Siemsen, pastor

Our Mid-Week service on Wednesday evening was a blessing to all who attended the same. We wish to urge more of our members and friends to attend these services. Our leader promises interesting subjects each week, the kind that will be helpful in our daily experiences.

Church school will begin at 9:45 next Sunday. All adult departments will study the character of "Jacob (a selfish man transformed)." This will be supplemented by "The Missionary Movements of the Church."

The Morning Worship service will begin at 11:00 a. m. The pastor will use "A Difference of Opinion" as his subject.

The Young People's meeting will begin at 7:15. Miss Eleanor Erickson will discuss the subject "Worth While Hobbies."

The Evening service begins at 8:00 p. m. Dr. M. G. Geil of Northwestern university, will be the speaker. He will use as his subject "The Prodigal Father." Dr. Geil, having been a former pastor here, is known by many people in this vicinity and it is hoped that a large group will come to hear him.

The annual Woman's Missionary convention of the Evangelical church of Illinois will be held at the Barrington camp grounds July 25-29. Many prominent speakers have been engaged for the gathering, which promises to be a good one in every respect.

Trinity Episcopal Church

The Swedish Methodist Church
Highwood Avenue and Everts Place
William W. Nelson, Pastor
Tel. Highwood 2161

Sixty of our members and friends attended the Des Plaines camp meetings during the Swedish week at camp. 50 of these were present last Sunday. We were somewhat crowded at the cottage, yet everyone was provided for. The spirit of the entire group proved the truth of the old saying, "The more, the merrier." And best of all, there was spiritual food enough to fill the hearts of all who attended the services. Our Des Plaines cottage has been rented for next week to a private party from the Methodist church of Lake Forest.

Sunday, July 13:

10:30 a. m.—Sunday school.

6:00 p. m.—Epworth league. The Pioneers will have charge.

7:45 p. m.—Evening service in English. The subject of the pastor's sermon will be "Why I Belong to Church." There are some people today who challenge the worthwhileness of the Christian church. We extend a special, friendly invitation to such people to attend this service.

Our Epworth League institute will begin at Lake Geneva on Monday, July 14, and continue over Sunday, July 20. Leaguers from three districts attend this institute, namely from Chicago, Milwaukee, and Janesville. The institute will be held, as usual, at Conference Point, a camp located about a mile southwest of Williams Bay, and commanding a beautiful view of Lake Geneva, the Galilee of the West.

Highland Park Methodist Church

North Avenue at Lauretta Place
Frank Davidson Hopkins, Minister

Our Sunday morning services are proving of great interest to those who attend although the congregations are not as large as they might be even though it be summer. The series of expositions on the Parables of Jesus seem to be very much liked; there is some special solo each Sunday; the church is never oppressively warm and fans are expected by next Sunday to help in keeping cool if the hot Sundays come. All Methodists in Highland Park are heartily invited to come to their own church and assist in making it a power for righteousness in the community; there is a cordial welcome and a place of real worship awaiting you.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will give the fifth discourse on the Parables of Jesus, giving an exposition of the parable of the Wise and Foolish Builders, as given in Matthew 7:24-27. As is the rule, the perfectly obvious in interpretation will be treated very briefly and an effort made to give some thoughts which grow out of our present day life, both personal and civic. Is folly the same as wickedness? Where lies the danger in emotion in religion? Where the value? How can we help the coming generation and our young people from dangerous building? We feel that those who miss these dis-
