

courses are missing real religious values in their daily lives.

While our Sunday school is slipping somewhat in attendance, yet it still is away ahead of the church in this respect, and there is splendid interest. Our superintendent, Wm. E. Bletsch, and our teachers are an unusually faithful lot as a rule and those sending their children to us may be sure they will have good attention.

Mrs. Fred Okey will be our soloist next Sunday at the church service and her small daughter will accompany her mother at the piano. Last Sunday Miss Faith Kuhlman sang and Mrs. Paul Downing took the place of Mr. Nichols at the piano as a slight injury to one hand incapacitated Mr. Nichols.

Des Plaines Camp Meeting

An annual event which interests hundreds of church people of all denominations is the Methodist camp meeting at the grounds adjoining Des Plaines. The 71st session opens there this week Friday and continues through Sunday July 20. Thousands attend—some days as many as 500 being on the grounds, and the able speakers heard there include men of national reputation. At the opening session this Friday night, Bishop E. L. Waldorf, of Kansas City, will be the speaker and the Mason Jubilee Singers will give a concert Saturday night of this week, a religious drama, "The Rock" will be presented by the Morgan Park players. Governor Emerson is expected to be present and speak Saturday, July 19. Other speakers will be Bishops J. C. Baker, Titus Lowe and C. L. Mead and many others. Among the musical features will be the Lindblom High School String Quartet, Johannes Koscielny, violinist; the Metropolitan Male Quartet, a great combined choir from various Chicago churches and the Mason Jubilee Singers. Mr. Roland Pease, well known to all Highland Parkers, will direct the singing and sing. The admission fee to each session is merely nominal and there is ample parking space in the extensive grounds. A large open air swimming pool is one of the attractions and a fine hotel, restaurant, lunch room, tennis courts, baseball diamonds etc., add to convenience and pleasure. They are over 100 permanent cottages on the grounds and a large tabernacle seating over 1200 people, which is filled nightly.

9:30—Church school. Departmental organization. Graded instruction.

10:45—Worship and sermon.

Friday evening, Scout meeting at the usual time.

Life, with all its strain and confusion, quickly becomes divested of its spiritual resources unless they are steadily replenished. You cannot take worship and prayer out of life and still hope to maintain your religion. Worship with us this Sunday.

A cordial welcome.

Owners Will Tell You—

They bought a luxury—expecting to pay a premium for its maintenance. But they were agreeably surprised to discover how little they paid per month of operation. You might like to learn more of this story of moderate costs.

For there's no good reason for you and your family to be satisfied with a car of ordinary quality and attainments when, for the same money, you can own a La Salle or Cadillac.

Come in and talk it over. Consider the facts. Decide on a basis of economy.
