BOY SCOUTS

a pretty bright bunch of fellows and they found them all.

The final results of the treasure hunt were as follows: first place, Menominee Wolf patrol; second place, Ottawa Crow patrol; third place, Shawnee Beavers, Elephants and Stag patrols and the Ottawa New Nertz patrol. The only prize awarded was lots of perspiration but all the scouts seemed to enjoy the afternoon's sport.—Bob White, Troop 31, Highland Park.

WICHMAN SCORES SMASHING SUCCESS

Dick Wichman of Troop 33, Highland Park who has had charge of many dining hall activities with which he has had succeeded today added another dining hall success to his record when he pepped up the entire camp with his inimitable song leading. "They laughed when he sat down to play the piano," but that was because there wasn't a bench. Strong men wept and gloomy campers cheered when the king of the mess hall ed in singing the songs so dear to the hearts of Makajawan campers.

Camp Radio Working

The camp short wave radio station is at last working as it should. The operator established two way communication with Howard Heaton, in Wilmette, this morning. Our regular schedules will be announced in two or three days.

Motion Pictures Taken

Pictures of the entire camp membership, scouts and scouters, by council troop, were taken this afternoon by Mr. Rybolt, operating a motion picture camera; Mr. McManus, operating a Q.R.S. Kamra which takes still pictures for projection on a screen and by Mr. Boltz, who handled a regular hand camera producing the customary contact prints.

Scouters Visit Camp

Mr. Longsdorf, scout executive at Wausaw, Wisconsin and Mr. Luther, the Antigo district scout commissioner were in camp last evening for a brief visit. They expressed a great deal of interest in Camp Makajawan. The Boy Scout council with headquarters at Wausaw takes in this territory as part of the council.

HOLD CALLING OUT RITUAL

The members of the camp had the sash of the Order of the Arrow placed over their shoulder last night in a picturesque calling out ceremony, the first of the season. The ceremony proper was preceded by an Indian program at the council ring, staged by Chief Whirling Thunder, Mr. Bersch, president of the Makajawan chapter of the order, Mr. Betak and Mr. Wilkins. The ceremony and program were both very picturesque according to old campers and impressed the entire camp with the importance of the organization. The candidates who were called out are: Mr. Harold Boltz, assistant camp director; Mr. Frank Kreusch of Wilmette; Mr. Hill, scoutmaster, Troop 31, Highland Park; Mr. Raymond Danielson, scoutmaster Troop 55, Glenview; Scout Ed. Cazel of Troop 52, Deerfield, Howard Wilkins, Troop 12, Wilmette; John Dernehl, Troop 8, Wilmette; Jim Cuffey, Troop 34, Highland Park; Emory Sawyer of Troop 19, Winnetka and Gerhardt Gulder of Troop 55, Glenview. This morning they sat at a special table and were served a special meal consisting of bread and water. At noon they were subjected to the usual diet and most of them survived even this dreadful strain. After dinner they entertained the entire camp by telling as best they could with out speaking of their experiences during the night.

Scoutmaster Returns

Mr. Hill, scoutmaster of the Shawnee village, returned to camp today after a five day trip to Highland Park on personal business. He will assume charge of the troop's activities tomorrow morning when Mr. Wightman, who has been acting scoutmaster during Mr. Hill's absence, will return to his duties as an S. O. in charge of publicity.

Features Bunyan Stories

At the Ottawa campfire last night, everybody had a great time. Dick Wichman, in charge of the mess hall, visited us and told us two good stories, one about Paul Bunyan and another about "Bloody Jim." Marty Weisner told another Paul Bunyan story. Then Mr. Morris the scoutmaster told a very interesting story with a thrilling end. The campfire was closed with a few songs.—J. Cuffey, Troop 34, Highland Park.

RYBOLT BRINGING
2ND PERIOD CAMPERS

Mr. Myron C. Rybolt, scout executive and camp manager, expects to leave camp this evening returning to Highland Park where he will make the final arrangements necessary to bring the scouts who will be new campers second period to camp. He will take the 11:35 train from Antigo which arrives in Highland Park 7:30 a. m. This is the first indication of the nearing of the end of first period and many members of the staff and camp are beginning to wonder just where the time went to.

CHARTER MEMBERS AWARDED INSIGNIA

The five charter members of R.O. O. G. were awarded appropriate insignia at noon mess today at the first bawling out ceremony conducted by Mr. Betak, waterfront director. Those who received this signal honor at the hands of Mr. Betak were: Mr. Bersch, camp quartermaster; Mr. Morris, Ottawa scoutmaster; Knight Aldrich, junior officer; Richard Haugness and Frank May, Menominee campers. A second bawling out ceremony was held at evening mess today when Bill Mehren was awarded a nicely burnished R. O. O. G. badge by Mr. Joyce who officiated in the absence of Mr. Betak. The R. O. O. G. badge by Mr. Joyce who officiated in the absence of Mr. Betak. The R.O. O.G. is an organization for those who fail to move their buddy checks to the proper place when they leave the waterfront.

True Co-operation
