"And he (Jesus Christ) gave some apostles; and some prophets; and some evangelists; and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, which is the Head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and completed by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love." The Annual Woman's Missionary Convention of Illinois is being held at the Barrington camp this week. Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg, a member of this church, is the president of the state organization. She extends a very cordial invitation to all of us to come and share the many good things that are in store. Mrs. J. S. Stamm, Mrs. O. K. Cady, Miss Lois Kramer and Prof. P. E. Keen are some of the principal speakers. The convention will close Sunday afternoon.

We are very much encouraged over the fine attendance during these summer months. The Adult department of the Church school are studying a special series of lessons dealing with church history at present. Many comments are being made on the value of these studies. The pastor will bring the message at the 11:00 a. m. worship service next Sunday. Rev. Mark J. Andrews of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will be the speaker next Sunday evening. Rev. Andrews has many Highland Park friends, who will welcome the opportunity of hearing him here.

Highland Park Methodist Church North avenue at Lauretta place

Frank Davidson Hopkins, minister

This coming Saturday evening the "Cotton Blossom Colored Singers," from Piney Woods, Mississippi, will give a program of Negro spirituals, folk songs and plantation melodies in our church. These young men are students of the school, spending their vacation in this way and spreading the knowledge of the work of this fine school for under privileged colored boys and girls. They have their own traveling home in the form of a very attractive house body built on an old chassis in which they travel, cook, eat and sleep. This group come very highly recommended by churches in the north who have recently had them and our members and friends may anticipate an entertaining program of such merit as to well repay being present whatever the weather. There will be no charge for admission but an offering will be received for the benefit of the school. The program will begin at eight o'clock. Children should be accompanied by parents.

Next Sunday morning the pastor gives the seventh of the series on The Parables of Jesus, taking for this occasion the very suggestive parable of "The Empty House." At each of these mid-summer services there is a special solo or other musical offering. Mr. W. H. Holgate is leading the congregational singing each Sunday in a very helpful way and the spirit of real worship finds a large place in each service. In case of extreme heat the basement room which is always cool, will be ready for use in place of the auditorium, although thus far it has not been needed. An ample supply of attractive fans adds to comfort these summer days.
