

This Is Matter of Interest to Veterans

Because of the fact that benefits under the new bill HR113174 are effective the date of application, it is therefore felt advisable to have all veterans who intend to apply under this act to make application over their own signature on the following requested form at once:

Regional Manager,
U. S. Veterans' Bureau,
Hines, Ill.

I hereby apply for benefits under HR-13174, effective this _____ day of _____ 1930. My claim number is _____ Signature _____

It is believed that all veterans who are not now receiving compensation or who have some other disability not due to service should apply for the benefits under this act, and by using the veteran's claim number, you will eliminate the necessity of having to furnish a copy of the veteran's discharge.

Montague Rasmussen of Lake Forest has received application blanks for disability claims under this act. Veterans are advised to get in touch with him.

Highland Park Public Library

Have You a Question

Let the Library save some of your time and steps. The following are some of the questions recently brought to the desk:

1. Locate the constitution of the confederate states.
2. The source of Maeterlinck's Pelleas and Melisande.
3. Designs for making Indian baskets.
4. The music for the song Marching Through Georgia.
5. A copy of the constitution of the state of Illinois.
6. Locate the small republic of Shoiptare.
7. A history of Highland Park.
8. The kinds of occupations represented by the residents of Highland Park.

Ragweed

In the interest of public health, and better farming, eradication of ragweed, as a preventative of hay fever, through a united, state-wide effort, is urged by the state.

Ragweed is wasteful and unsightly. It causes nine out of every ten cases of hay fever. If destroyed before the first of August it will not pollute the air with pollen. A specimen can be seen in the lobby of the library if you are not acquainted with it.

How to Kill Ragweed

1. Pull them up by the roots.
2. Mow them close to the ground.
3. They do no harm before they bloom. They may be safely handled until August 1.

More War Books

The Whistler's Room, by Paul Alverdes—

"The scene is a German hospital on the Rhine where three soldiers, similarly wounded in the throat and provided with silver pipes for breathing are awaiting recovery. They are later joined by a fourth 'Whistler', a young Englishman. Their common affliction is a strong bond and they become fast friends. Two of the whistlers die, but with the other two the skill and patience of the doctor effect a miraculous cure. The story is short and told with perfect simplicity."—Book Review Digest.

Retreat; A novel of 1918, by Charles Benstead—

"Chaplain Warne of the Church of England is assigned to his regiment about 24 hours before the great German offensive. The regiment does not want him, and he is too busy to find his place.

From then on Chaplain Warne degenerates from physical cowardice to madness and death, as he sees how little religion and his idea of God means in this welter of bestiality and slaughter.

—The Library Lantern.

Her Privates We, by Private 19022—

This war novel has received an unusual measure of praise from popular reviewers in the English press. Arnold Bennett, evidently under pressure of great excitement, believes this novel written by one of his Majesty's privates, regimental number 19022, "will be remembered when 'All Quiet on the Western Front' is forgotten.

Helps for the Hostess

"A hostess has certain definite responsibilities. It is her place to receive the guests and assure them of a warm welcome, . . . and to send them on their way with the knowledge that it has been a joy to her to extend to them the hospitality of her home."

—Era Betzner.

Parties and Stunts Around the Year, by Era Betzner—

This book provides ideas which used as presented or adapted to suit occasions may serve for entertaining either formally or informally in home, school, and church.

The Shower Book, by Emily Rose Burt.

When in doubt about giving a shower use one of the 77 suggested here. Many hints for unique refreshments are included.

Stunt Night Tonight, by Catherine Atkinson Miller—

The author tells some of her own stunt secrets, and also gives explicit directions for stunts which have been performed "on church and school platforms in eastern cities, under chautauqua tents in the middle west, and the campfire in the Sierras, always with rib-tickling success."

Good Times for All Times, by Nina B. Lamkin—

A cyclopedia of entertainment with programs, outlines, references and practical suggestions for home, school, church and community.

Diver Quoted as Not Being Judge Candidate

Clarence W. Diver, president of the Lake County Bar association who has been suggested by Democrats as a likely candidate or circuit court judge on the Democratic party ticket, has stated that he is not a candidate for any office.

"All of the men who have been named for circuit judge to date are capable," Mr. Diver said, according to a Waukegan newspaper, referring to Ralph J. Daddy, George W. Fields, Theodore Forby and William Pierce, who are being backed for the Republican selection for circuit judge.
