

Things to Cook

If you have never tried baking tomatoes with halibut or other fresh fish, you will find that it makes a nice little variety. For this, the fresh ripe tomatoes are used, the centers cut out and reserved for a sauce to serve with it and the tomato shells filled with fish and baked.

Tomatoes Baked with Halibut

- 6 ripe tomatoes
- 1 pound halibut steak or filet of fish
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- Salt
- Pepper
- Lemon juice
- Chopped parsley

Cut out the stem end of tomatoes and remove the center. Cut fish in six strips, dip each strip in lemon juice, then in melted butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and chopped parsley. Roll up and place one piece in each tomato. Place on a greased baking pan and bake at 400 until fish is tender, which will be about 30 to 35 minutes.

When done, remove carefully to a hot platter and serve surrounded by the following cheese sauce.

Cheese Sauce

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup strained tomato
- 1/8 teaspoon soda
- 1/4 cup cheese cut fine
- Salt
- Pepper

Cook the tomato pulp removed from the six tomatoes, strain and add enough water to make one cup. Scald and add soda. Melt butter, add flour and stir until well blended, then milk and cook until it begins to thicken, add tomato and cheese and cook until cheese is melted, also salt and pepper to taste.

New Crusader Movement Against Prohibition Is Organizing on N. Shore

Just how each candidate for county office stands on the wet and dry issue is to be determined and made public by the Crusaders, a militant anti-prohibition organization recently formed in Lake Forest as part of a national society.

Such was the announcement yesterday of Farwell Winston, former mayor of Lake Forest battalion of the organization, which is pledged to end the present status of prohibition.

J. Russell Forgan, commander of the Chicago battalion, was instrumental in organizing the Lake Forest group, along with Mr. Winston and some 18 or 20 business men of that city. Organization of a branch of the Crusaders in Highland Park is planned.

Purposes Outlined

"I believe that national prohibition has incited crime and hypocrisy and has incurred lawlessness and corruption. I believe that the cause of real temperance has been retarded by the eighteenth amendment. I am therefore willing to support any proper measure that will bring about a sane solution of the problem."

Announcement of the appointment of Lester Tiffany, chief of police of Lake Forest and Republican nominee for sheriff, to secure members for the organization among political candidates, was made by Mr. Winston.
