St. Paul's Picnic Splendid Success, Committee Reports

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, George C. Meyer, John Radeke, Louis Saefker, Paul Kempher, and Carl Knigge, who comprised the committee in charge of the annual St. Paul's picnic held at Sunset Park, Highland Park, last Sunday, are very happy to report its splendid success.

The heat of the day was soon forgotten beneath the many beautiful shade trees and all who attended entered into the spirit of the affair and had a good time.

Divine worship sermon at 11 a.m. opened the program of the day and was followed by picnic dinner, games, contests, etc.

General good fellowship prevailed throughout the day. The fish pond afforded a great deal of pleasure to the children, while the ball game between single and married men from which married men emerged victorious by a score of 6 to 5, was the outstanding feature for adults.

Rev. Piepenbrok and committee are grateful to the Highland Park park commissioners for granting them the privileges of the lovely park, also to members of the church who cooperated with them in making the event one to be long remembered.
