C. G. Unangst, pastor.

Yes, last Sunday was another hot day! But it was a good day at the church, nevertheless. We had a fine time in the Bible school. The pastor brought a message of comfort at 10:45 a.m. and it was very fitting in view of the fact that two sudden deaths affecting our people, had just taken place. The Raedeke trio, of Chicago, sang at the evening service and the message on "Salvation by Grace," was well received. The closing hymn, "Glory to His Name," was sung with a new appreciation and inspiration.

The pastor's sermon subjects for next Sunday are: 10:45 a.m., "A light that shineth in a dark place"; 7:45 p.m., "Heaven: what is it like? Who will be there?"

The Mission Band will meet on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, at the church. The attendance at the meetings of the band has been very encouraging. The leaders, Mrs. Fred Henning and Miss Hedwig Gieser, are doing a good work with the boys and girls. Let every member be present on Saturday afternoon. Bring other boys and girls.

The ladies of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society will hold their meeting for this month, on the lake front, on Thursday at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Charles Thorson will present the topic for the day. ## Methodists Episcopal Church

North ave. at Lauretta place.

Frank Davidson Hopkins, minister
One might possibly think that a series of discourses on the Parables of Jesus would become somewhat monotonous but such is far from the truth. Each parable has its own distinctive theme and is as different from others as would be two different subjects chosen by any speaker. The teachings of Jesus and are so strikingly adaptable to the life of today makes them doubly interesting. Next Sunday morning the pastor takes the parable which is ordinarily given the title of "The Rich Fool" and it will develop a theme quite different from any of the preceding ones. Do large possession enlarge or restrict one's freedom? At what point may one begin to be "rich"? How may a man be wealthy and a splendid Christian? Why in this labor-saving-machine-age is there increased fatigue and exhaustion of life? Come and enjoy these studies with us; you will find them well worth while.

The Ladies Aid of the church will hold a bakery sale this Saturday at Laegeler's drug store, on Waukegan avenue. There will be many kinds of delicious products of home kitchens for sale at reasonable prices and those who find cooking these hot days too irksome, will wish to secure some of these goodies.

This, from the New York Sun, has a pithy point in it: "Mahatma Gandhi's performance gives us an idea. How about having some outstanding American 'wet' — say Mr. Raskob or Dr. Butler, — get into a night-gown, march to the Potomac river, and make dandelion wine?"
