

NORTH SHORE DAY AT FORT SHERIDAN CAMP

Highland Park and Lake Forest Representatives Are Among Guests; Features

Thursday, Aug. 7, was observed as "North Shore Day" at the Citizens' Military Training camp now in session at Fort Sheridan. The day was beautiful, warm and full of sunshine. The many guests found much to see, especially as the 1930 students show more advancement than usual after only a week in camp.

At 9:30 a.m. a salute of 13 guns was fired for the arrival of Brigadier General Edward L. King who made an informal inspection of camp and personnel during the day.

Several other dignitaries were present from north shore cities and witnessed the exercises and athletic events and ceremonies which were held throughout the day. Among them were Mayor William Moulton of Winnetka, with his daughter; Major Adam R. Waaks (65th Cavalry) of Lake Bluff; Paul L. Udell, representing the city of Highland Park; Alderman Leslie Kelly of Lake Forest; and President F. L. McOmber of the Highwood chamber of commerce.

Hosts and Escorts

These visitors had as their hosts and escorts ten Blue Course or 4th year C.M.T.C. student officers, especially selected for this duty, as follows:

J. S. Babor, Co. A; from 2824 Crawford ave., Chicago.

M. V. Knourek, Co. B; from 822 Williams st., River Forest.

George E. Heatter, Co. C; from 7825 S. Carpenter st., Chicago.

F. L. O'Brien, Co. D; from 306 E. Chippewa st., Dwight, Ill.

R. S. Tolles, Co. F; from 10561 Longwood drive, Chicago.

A. R. Warren, Co. G; from 1234 S. Fourth street, Pekin, Illinois.

Ivan Kaspar, band; from 106 Kirkland st., S.W., Grand Rapids, Mich.

George W. Harris Jr., Troop A; from 1427 S. Kenneth ave., Chicago.

Howard L. Janes, Troop B; from 1146 S. Elmwood ave., Oak Park.

Inspect Camp

Every detail of the facilities of the camp was thoroughly inspected and the visitors expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the condition of the camp, the progress of the boys and the cordial treatment received at the hands of their hosts.

Moldaner & Humer's 5th Annual Fur Sale

Moldaner & Humer's fifth annual fur style show is being held August 14, 15 and 16 and all of the charming 1931 styles in furs are represented. Better furs are being displayed this year than ever before at this show, and the show is of marked educational value, with a very large variety in all lines. Moldaner & Humer have been in business in Highland Park for 19 years and have maintained a high standard of merchandise and service throughout. This year their stock of furs is unequalled in variety, style and attractiveness, and everybody interested should not fail to visit their show on one of the three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of this week.

Moose Lodge to Hold Celebration Saturday, August 30

Members of Highland Park lodge No. 446 Loyal Order of Moose will hold their 10th anniversary celebration on Saturday evening August 30, 8 p.m. at the Witten hall. A splendid program has been arranged and the committee in charge have been working hard to make this celebration one long to be remembered. This will be for members only but all members are most earnestly urged to attend. Among one of the features of the evening will be a brief outline of the history of the local lodge which will be given by one of our past dictators.

Notices will be sent to all members in due time in order that you may reserve this date for the best celebration in the history of Highland Park lodge.

Highland Park lodge is now rounding out its 10th year in Highland Park and in this short space of time have made wonderful strides toward a most successful organization, an organization that has for its ideal the preservation of childhood.

The committee have planned for the latter part of the month of September a card and dance party which will be held at the recreation hall of the Y. W. C. A.

Our annual Minstrel Show will be held about the last week of October. We all recall the minstrel show of last winter and this one promises to be even better. The cast of players will be selected at our next meeting August 25, and all members wishing to take part will kindly register at that time with the committee in charge.

Now that the vacation period is drawing to a close it is hoped by the officers in charge that our attendance to meetings will increase and that we may carry on the many activities laid out for us through the fall and winter season.

Tee Club Events at Sunset Valley Club

The women at Sunset Valley are to have two days all to themselves on August 19th and 21st. August 19th is the regular Tuesday women's day and guest day. There will be tournament play and bridge, with prizes given in all events.

On the 21st there will be another day just for the women members of the club. The feature of that day will be an 18-hole medal play tournament, with handicaps, and ten prizes are offered to the winners.

Sells Store Here and Buys One in California

H. F. Clow has disposed of his Royal Blue store at 234 North Second street and the new proprietors are A. L. Carpenter and his son, R. C. Carpenter. The latter is a Highland Park resident and his father comes from Iowa. They plan to continue the store on progressive lines, giving prompt and efficient service. Mr. Clow has purchased a store in Los Angeles, Calif., and he and his family plan to leave for their new home about September 1.

MARDI GRAS FEATURE DEERFIELD CARNIVAL

Legion Post There Planning Two Big Days Friday and Saturday

Deerfield Post No. 738, American Legion, under the direction of its carnival chairman, Comrade Marshall Pottenger, is completing plans and arrangements for the coming carnival, which is to be held in Jewett park, Deerfield, on Friday and Saturday, August 22 and 23.

Every effort is being put forth to provide entertainment for all the guests, young and old. The dance floor, and the dance music, which will be provided by a peppy band, will merit the approval of all who enjoy this pleasant diversion. The dance floor will be open on Friday evening, as well as on Saturday, says the chairman, Comrade LeRoy Meyers.

The usual concession booths will be conducted, including a registration booth (under the supervision of the Auxiliary unit). The unusual and beautiful prizes are sure to evoke admiration from all who see them. Comrade C. E. Huhn is concession chairman.

The refreshment booth, under the supervision of Comrade Harry Mau, will supply a variety of cold drinks, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, candies, etc.

Mardi-Gras; Field Events

The Mardi Gras for children under 12 years of age will take place at 12:30 o'clock, Saturday. Prizes will be awarded for unusual and attractive costumes. It is hoped that many of the children will participate in this colorful and popular event.

Knights of Columbus Give Annual Frolic at Columbian Gardens

The annual picnic of Wilmette council, Knights of Columbus will be held Sunday at the Columbian Gardens on Milwaukee avenue. The affair, at which basket lunches will predominate, will be an all day one, as numerous races and specialty events have been carded. Besides the usual races, a horse shoe elimination contest is expected to prove popular. A ball game between two picked teams will undoubtedly be as interesting as usual. A twentie-weenie golf course will be installed and the winner of a proposed tourney will take the set home as a prize. Refreshments will be served during the day. Members of the organization and their families are urged to attend the frolic. The site can be reached easily by auto being about one mile north of Dundee road on Milwaukee avenue and the entrance to the grounds is opposite the Columbian Fields Country club. Mr. Edward Greenwald is a member of the committee. The board of arrangements consist of Al M. Schaefer as chairman, assisted by Peter Steffens, John Schopen, Al Stall, Roman and John Selzer, William Obermeier, Joseph De Haye, Carl C. Rennecker and Gino Matteoni.
