

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield Locals

Paul Johnson, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson spent the past two weeks at the home of his grandfather, Rev. J. H. Johnson at Ashton, Illinois.

Mrs. Irving Brand of Deerfield avenue was hostess to her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. A. P. Johnson with a group of members of Bethlehem Evangelical church are planning to attend the General Quadrennial Convention of Religious Education of the Evangelical church to be held at Naperville from August 12 to 17. 2000 delegates from the United States as well as abroad are expected to attend this convention. The art fiber weaving and pastel painting done during the summer Bible school session by children of the local Evangelical church will be on exhibit.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke entertained a number of friends at her home on Central avenue Friday afternoon.

Miss Gladys Reid, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. George Engstrom and mother, Mrs. Mary Reid departed Sunday for Globe, Arizona where she is assistant superintendent of schools. En route she will visit in Dallas, Texas.

Dan Hunt and family have moved into their new home on Fair Oaks avenue.

Miss Martha Borman of Chicago was a guest of Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. on Friday.

The Cruishan family have moved from Mrs. Minnie Willman's home on Grand avenue to the house on Division street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawrentz, who have moved to Libertyville.

The W. H. Neville family were among the large number of families at the Effingham county reunion held in Lions Park, Des Plaines on Sunday. The affair was given for all former residents of Effingham now residing in either Lake or Cook counties. An entertaining program was provided throughout the day and thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

A very pretty wedding of last week was that of Miss Eleanor Helen Ott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ott of Oak avenue and Mr. Arthur Johnson of Central avenue, which took place at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, August 9 at 5 o'clock. The service was read by the Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church and was witnessed by about thirty guests including mostly relatives. The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. Anna

Ott, sister of the bride was maid of satin and the flowers she carried were yellow roses. Edward Johnson served his brother as best man. The color scheme of yellow and white was effectively carried out in the house decorations. Following the wedding dinner, the young couple departed for a honeymoon at Three Lakes, Wisconsin, after which they will make their home in Deerfield on Fair Oaks avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson are entertaining Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Aurand of Le Mars, Iowa, at their summer cottage at Barrington this week. Rev. Aurand delivered the sermon at the evening service on Sunday at the Bethlehem Evangelical church and together with Rev. E. Schaeffer of Meridan, Illinois, rendered a delightful musical program.

Mrs. Arthur Maw and three daughters are spending the week with Mrs. Maw's parents at Hammond, Ind.

Rev. and Mrs. Sorg of Kansas City, Mo., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Sorg's brother John L. Vetter of Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Haehlen of Dyars, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. Haehlen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stryker of Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ender and daughter Ruth were guests at the E. Ender home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Rockenbach and son Vernon, who have been visiting Mr. Rockenbach's father for several weeks plan to return to their home in Hollywood, Calif., next week.

Ruth Saefker returned to her home on Thursday after spending a week with Mrs. Ethan Willman at White Fish Bay, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Saefker and Mrs. Minnie Willman spent Thursday at the Ethan Willman home.

Lawrence Dondanville returned to his home in Moline, Illinois on Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Catherine Ender, Arthur and Clara Ender.

On account of the rain on last Tuesday afternoon, the Woman's Missionary society of the Bethlehem Evangelical church dispensed with their plans for a picnic at Sunset park. However, they enjoyed a picnic lunch in the dining room of the church. At that time reports of the Illinois Branch W. M. S. Convention were given by delegates Mrs. E. Giss and Mrs. J. L. Vetter. General discussion followed by others, who attended the convention.

Mrs. J. E. Woodman of Paul Harbor, Fla., en route to her summer home in northern Wisconsin, spent Monday with Miss Sadie Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Muller and family of Arlington Heights were guests at the Fred Meyer home on Saturday.

ELECT OFFICERS OF DEERFIELD AUXILIARY

Mrs. Farner Named President; List of Others Chosen; Delegates Selected

At the annual meeting of the Deerfield unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, held Monday evening, the following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. George Jacobs; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Ralph Peterson; sergeant-at-arms, Kathrine Mau; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Jacobs, Sr.; chaplain, Miss Louise Huhn.

The incoming president, Mrs. Farner and Mrs. George Jacobs will be delegates to the tenth annual department convention of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held at Aurora on September 8 and 9. Mrs. Frank Jacobs Jr. was elected alternate for Mrs. Farner and Mrs. Gordon Clouse alternate for Mrs. G. Jacobs.

To Visit Camp

The president announced that Thursday, August 14, would be Legion day at Fort Sheridan when special entertainment will be in order and urged members to try and visit the scene of activities on that day.

Mrs. Grace Tibbals, department rehabilitation chairman, gave a detailed description of how the executive board functions as well as some of the problems they hope to solve at the coming convention.

The unit also voted to send the past president, Mrs. Harry Mau, to the convention and pay all her expenses.

Reports Given

Quarterly reports were given by rehabilitation, child welfare, and membership chairmen. Mrs. Tennerman in her child welfare report stated that dress material purchased from proceeds of recent card parties had been forwarded to the three orphans adopted by the unit.

Many beautiful and useful articles were obtained for the registration booth which promises to be the outstanding feature at the Legion carnival scheduled for Friday and Saturday, August 22 and 23.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Mau and Miss Katherine Mau.

Installation of officers will not be held until the October meeting.

St. Paul's Ladies' Aid to Have Picnic Aug. 21

Members of the Ladies' Aid society and Sewing circle of St. Paul's Evangelical church are asked to bring a basket lunch and enjoy a picnic on the lawn of Mrs. Louis Soefker on the County Line road on Thursday, August 21.

Those desiring transportation are requested to meet at the church at 12:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Labahn of Central avenue had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. Gumme, Mr. and Mrs. Gurtz and three daughters of Evans-

Miss Rockenbach Bride of Wm. C. Brandenburg Wedding Saturday, Aug. 8

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends in Deerfield occurred on Saturday, August 8th when Helen Rockenbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Rockenbach, became the bride of William C. Brandenburg of Hudson, Wis.

Miss Rockenbach graduated from Deerfield-Shields high school and in June completed junior year at the University of Illinois. She is a member of Sigma Kappa.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mark J. Andrews, pastor of the Deerfield Presbyterian church, at the home of the bride's parents at Lake Zurich at five o'clock.

The bride's gown was of powder blue chiffon and she carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Rockenbach, as maid of honor who wore a gown of flowered chiffon and carried pink roses and pink larkspurs.

Mr. Kenneth Holmes of Chicago served as best man.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and guests motored to Barrington where a wedding dinner was served at the Barrington Tea Room.

After a honeymoon at Rhinelander, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Brandenburg will make their home in Chicago.

Mr. George Rockenbach and two daughters, Misses Viola and Irene Rockenbach from Deerfield and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Rockenbach and son Vernon of Hollywood, Calif., were among the thirty-five out of town guests who witnessed the ceremony.

Deerfield Bowlers Meet; Chose Officers; Schedule

A meeting of the Deerfield Bowling league will be held in the village hall, Deerfield, Friday evening, August 15, for the purpose of electing officers, preparing the schedule, and selecting teams for the coming season. Bowlers and others interested in this invigorating winter pastime are invited to attend and take part in the evening's and season's program. Mr. Phillip R. Scully Jr., is secretary and further information may be obtained from him by calling Deerfield 124.

Fox River Gun Club Wins in Final Match

The Fox River Gun club of Geneva, Ill., won first place in the Northern Illinois' Trap Shooters' League for the year by winning the final tournament at Palatine Sunday, August 10.

Geneva won three tournaments, Waukegan two, Deerfield one, and Barrington one.

Those failing to win a tournament included Downers Grove, Algonquin, and Palatine.

The Deerfield Gun club was represented by Walter and Ed Rudolph, C. T. Anderson and Robert E. Pettis.