

The Highland Park Press

Playground Scenes

Herewith are scenes of activity on the Highland Park East Park district Playgrounds, showing the varied character of the supervised play provided for the children of the city under competent instructors.

These playgrounds are becoming more and more an important factor in the child life of Highland Park and merit the hearty support of all citizens.

Story on page one.

