

Among the Local Churches

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healings are given. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m., and is open to pupils between the ages of four and twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Mind."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central avenue, where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The reading room is open every weekday from nine in the morning until six in the evening, on Wednesday until 7:30 and on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

The Bethany Evangelical Church

Rev. H. F. Siemsen, Pastor

There will be no preaching services at the Bethany church next Sunday nor the Sunday following. These two Sundays are set aside for the Barrington camp meeting which opens Friday evening. Sunday school, however, will be conducted both Sundays at this community to attend the Barrington camp meeting which opens this Friday evening. Sunday school, however, will be conducted both Sundays at 9:45 a.m.

A general invitation is extended to the people of this community to attend the Barrington camp meeting which will be held from August 22 to September 1. Rev. E. W. Petticoord of Los Angeles, California will be the special Evangelist. Dr. A. J. Harms of the Baptist Seminary of Chicago, will be the Bible teacher, while Drs. E. E. Rall, A. A. Krug, C. F. Stauffer, and Bishop Maze will appear on the program from time to time. This will be one of the strongest programs ever put on at Barrington and it ought to draw a large crowd from this vicinity. Many of this church are planning to live in our cottage on the grounds from the first day to the last, this is fine and we urge others to do the same.

The Quadrennial Convention at Naperville came to a close on the past Sunday evening. It was the greatest convention in the history of the church. Over a 1000 young people gathered from nearly every part of the U. S. and Canada. Those who attended from Bethany have remarked that it was the greatest experience of their life.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday:

9:45—Church school.

11:00—The Reverend Fred Baldus, M.A., B.D., pastor of the First Baptist church, Greeley, Colorado, will preach. Miss Jane Symons, contralto, will be soloist and precentor.

First United Evangelical Church

C. G. Unangst, pastor

The following services have been planned for next Sunday. The pastor will preach at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The sermon subjects are interesting and practical. They are, 10:45 a. m. "Christ Dwelling in the Heart." Eph. 3:17. 7:45 p. m. "Unconscious Spiritual Loss." Judges 16:20.

The Bible school meets at 9:30 a. m. We are to teach the Word of God sanely, faithfully and in a way that will help people of all ages. The lesson for Sunday deals with Jonathan and David, and it presents a beautiful example of true friendship. If you are not attending any other school visit our school. Systematic instruction in the Word of God is a universal need.

Ethel Hankin will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p. m. Topic, "Is Education Worth What It Costs?" Prov. 3:13-18. These meetings are of great value to the young people. Come!

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. You need a spiritual uplift between Sundays, so come to this service.

In the sermon on Pleasing God, delivered on last Sunday evening, the minister said that the Word of God declares that sin and guilt are universal and that all the world stands condemned before God. See Romans chapters 1-3, inclusive. Concerning Jesus Christ the Father said, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." Enoch lived in an evil day and yet before his translation he had this testimony, "that he pleased God." In contrast with these two, Christ and Enoch, it is written concerning the people of Israel that "with many of them God was not well pleased." They were rebuked and warned by the prophets and God manifested his displeasure with them by withholding rain from their land, by sending disease and pestilence into their midst and in various other ways. Is God pleased with us? Mr. Roosevelt said that the American people are the best fed, the best clothed and the best housed people in the world. But are we pleasing God? What great moral lesson should have been learned from the Mississippi River flood? Is God to us through the present unemployment situation, the drouth in many states, the increasing lawlessness throughout the land and the general spiritual barrenness in the churches? "If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I sent pestilence among the people; if my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." 2 Chron. 7:13, 14. Let us think on these things.

Rev. Elmer Gieser, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Herford, Texas, preached a very helpful sermon to a good congregation at 10:45 a. m. last Sunday.
