

RAVINIA PROGRAM 10TH WEEK VARIED

the Swedish National Society of Chicago, the program to be presented by the Chicago Symphony orchestra under the direction of Eric DeLamarter. Mme. Julia Claussen, contralto of the Ravinia Opera coterie and John Weicher, violinist, will be the soloists. The orchestra will play Atterberg's Symphony in B minor, Grieg's overture, "In Autumn," and Alfven's "Midsummer Wake." Mme. Claussen will sing an aria from the opera "Waldemarshatten" by Hallen; "In Dreams" by Sjogren and "Sunshine" by Jarnefelt. Mr. Weicher will play the ballet music from "Rosamunde" by Schubert; "Saltarelle" by Wieniawski; "Legend" by Mueller and "Spanish Lance" by Sarasate. Justus Mozart, president of the Swedish National Society of Chicago, and Chief Justice Harry Olson of the municipal court of Chicago, will be present on this occasion and Judge Olson will make a brief address.

The spirit of gala will be rife at Ravinia on Sunday night, Aug. 24, as on this occasion the Chicago Bar association will entertain the British and French visitors who are attending the meeting of the American Bar association in Chicago. The operatic offering for the evening will be Verdi's "The Masked Ball" which is one of the most tuneful and dramatic operas of the repertoire. Mme. Rethberg will be heard as Amelia, Mr. Martinelli as Richard and Giuseppe Danise as Renato. Others in the cast are Miss Macbeth as Oscar; Mme. Claussen, Mr. Lazzari, Mr. D'Angelo, Miss Maxwell, Mr. Cehanovsky and Mr. Oliviero. Mr. Papi will conduct.

"Feodora" Aug. 25

"Fedora," Giordano's colorful opera based on the drama of the same name will be given on Monday night, Aug. 25. Mme. Gall will be cast in the name part and this time Edward Johnson will sing the role of Count Loris. Giuseppe Danise will be De Sirex and Leon Rothier will be heard as Cyrillo. Others are Mr. D'Angelo, Miss Maxwell, Miss Falco, Miss Paggi, Mr. Cehanovsky, Mr. Oliviero, Mr. Windheim and Mr. Ananian. Mr. Papi will be the conductor. "La Juive" will be given a repeat performance on Tuesday night, Aug. 26, with the same cast which has made this one of the outstanding works of the Ravinia list. Mme. Rethberg will sing the highly dramatic role of Rachel, opposite Giovanni Martinelli who will be Eleazar. Leon Rothier will be the Cardinal. Miss Florence Macbeth will be the Princess Eudoxia and Giuseppe Cavadore will be Leopold. Mr. Cehanovsky and Mr. Ananian are both well cast and there will be ballet headed by Miss Page and Mr. Scott. Mr. Hasselmans will conduct.

Offenbach's fanciful opera "The Tales of Hoffman" will be presented on Wednesday night, Aug. 27 with the same cast which was heard in this tuneful work earlier in the season. Mme. Gall will have the dual roles of Antonia and Giulietta and Mario Chamlee will be the poet, Hoffman. Miss Florence Macbeth will be the doll. Mme. Bourskaya will have the part of Nichlaus and Giuseppe Danise will be Dappertutto. Others importantly cast are Mr. Rothier, Mr. Defrere, Mr. D'Angelo, Mr. Cehanovsky, Mr. Windheim and Miss Falco. Mr. Hasselmans will conduct.

The children's concert and entertainment of the season will be given on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 28, the concert program being played by the Chicago Symphony orchestra under the direction of Eric DeLamarter. The entertainment which is to follow is Fisher's Circus, during which trained dogs, ponies, horses, monkeys and birds will appear. Children twelve years of age and under are admitted free to these concerts. Seats are free for everyone.
