Ladies Occupy Lounge

Final touches to the furnishings of the ladies' lounge on the second floor of the clubhouse have been completed, and the women have moved in. This makes a convenient and comfortable place for the women patrons of the club; and it is greatly appreciated by them.

Beach Is Closed

The bathing beaches have been closed for the season after the most successful year in this activity the city has ever had. Ideal weather this season accounted for the greatly increased attendance. Park officials say that the increase is wholly among Highland Park residents.

Mr. Laing and his assistants are to be congratulated for the unusual success of another season of park and playground activities. Through Mr. Laing's efforts these activities are coming to have a larger and larger part in the community's life; and the parks, under his supervision, a greater addition to the natural beauty of the town.

Colonel C. L. Reeves, Crusaders Organizers, Talks to Rotary Club

Members of the Highland Park Rotary club were addressed at their Tuesday noon luncheon by Col. C. L. Reeves, an organizer for the Crusaders, national organization opposed to prohibition as it exists in the United States today. Mr. Reeves was introduced by F. W. Cushing, president of the Moraine Hotel company.

Col. Reeves has a distinguished record both in a long public career and in private business. After a brilliant army career, Col. Reeves was made prohibition administrator for the state of New Jersey, usually considered the wettest state in the federal union. Through several years of this he served honestly and well, raiding 500 stills with a varied capacity of from 100 to 19,000 gallons, and seizing much liquor and property. With the same honesty that made him an incorruptible and efficient government enforcement officer, Mr. Reeves came to see not only the impossibility but the evils of attempting to enforce the 18th amendment and its enabling acts, the Volstead and Jones laws. This vision and ardor has taken him into the service of the Crusaders, now organizing for action in many cities all over the country.
