"The Unholy Three," with Lon Chaney, at the Deerpath Theatre

Topping the bill at the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, the coming week is the talking version of "The Unholy Three," starring the late Lon Chaney. Since Mr. Chaney's death occurred a few days ago, this will be the last picture in which admirers of the great character actor will be able to see him and hear him talk. Many will no doubt remember the silent version of the film. They are assured that the talking picture is immeasurably superior; for few actors were found superior to Chaney in talkies—none in the portrayal of difficult character parts. In this he assumes various roles, which bring out his peculiar talent. The picture is shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

Another big picture of the week is the transcription to film and sound of Eric Remarque's "All Quiet on the Western Front," scheduled for Sunday and Monday.

The entire week's program is exceptional. Finishing a two-day run Friday, Sept. 5 is "The Cuckoos," with the two popular comedians of Rio Rita—Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey.

Saturday, Sept. 6, will be shown, for the one day only, "The Richest Man in the World," with a large cast of competent actors which includes Louis Mann, Leila Hyams, Robert Montgomery, Elliott Nugent and James Ford.

Thursday and Friday, Sept. 11 and 12, Richard Dix appears in "Shooting Straight," an action picture of much vim and gusto.

On Wednesday night, also will occur the fourth drawing for numbers in the Chevrolet elimination contest.

OIL BURNERS

During 1929 than any other make

Department Stores may sell pins—Plumbers may sell bath tubs—Heating contractors may sell heating plants, BUT have any of them made a success of the highly specialized oil-burner industry?

The Silent Automatic has demonstrated the important fact that in order to give the home owner what he is buying—automatic heat—it is necessary to specialize. We sell nothing but oil-burning equipment. We do not meddle with radios, washing machines, ice-boxes or any other kindred lines.

We believe that Silent Automatic maintains the only 24-hour service on the North Shore. If necessary you can call Greenleaf 0700—Winnetka 650 or Highland Park 4141 on Sundays, holidays, midnight or at any other time, and receive immediate attention.

Think this out for yourself. Then on top of that remember that Silent Automatic users say you can heat your house for as much as 40% less than any other burners or coal. Is it any wonder that most people prefer Silent Automatic,
