Colonel C. L. Reeves,
Crusaders Organizers,
Talks to Rotary Club

Formation of a branch of the Crusaders at Highland Park was effected in a meeting at the Moraine hotel two weeks ago, and the membership in this body is now rapidly growing.

Some statements made by Col. Reeves at the Rotary luncheon:

"The Crusaders want to give politics a rest. There is no fundamental issue other than prohibition. Party lines do not count in this campaign. The forces of good government and honest administration in both parties are in sympathy with the objectives of the Crusaders." "The money paid out by bootleggers for protection an-nally in the United States exceeds the total of government income tax. All enforcement officials know this."

Col. Reeves is a Republican, a Methodist, a high-degree Mason, and a resident of Perry, Fla. He is president of the Reeves Engineering Corp., of Chicago, and the author of a couple of books on military tactics.

Mr. Arthur Mogg, Mr. and Mrs. C. Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. William Beere and family were the guests of Mr. Claud Mitchell at his cottage at Lily Moor over the week-end.

Mrs. Catherine Levin has returned from South Amana, Ia., where she spent the past two months visiting relatives.
