Presents

MR EDWARD MELTZER, A.B., Mus., B., formerly director of N. U. band, and for ten years member of Evanston Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Meltzer will accept a limited number of pupils on Flute, Clarinet, Horn, Saxophone, Cornet, Trumpet, Tuba and Drums. He has distinguished himself as a pupil of the country's foremost teachers on these instruments and his own pupils hold prominent positions in the bands at Illinois, Michigan, Harvard, Williams and Northwestern universities.

MR. JACK LUNDIN, Chicago's foremost teacher of tenor banjo. Formerly with Paul Ash, Jack Chapman and the Edgewater Beach Orioles. Lessons will be given to beginners as well as advanced students, and will include Theory and Harmony. Mr. Lundin's pupils learn to play both melody and accompaniment, to transpose and to do their own arranging. He will also conduct classes for players of all instruments in the routine of the modern dance orchestra. Applications should be made in person.

We feel both proud and fortunate in thus presenting to Highland Park the opportunity for study with two such outstanding musicians. Their studios will be in our new store at 380 Central Avenue. Let us explain our convenient plan of class instruction for beginners, including rental of instruments.
