REPUBLICAN NOTABLES AT WAUKEGAN SAT.

Organization Touring Party Includes Ruth McCormick, Gov. Emmerson and Sen. Glenn

The Republican state campaign was officially opened by an organization tour of the Congressional districts by all of the state candidates, headed by Mr. C. J. Doyle, chairman of the State Central committee.

The first meeting was held at Carbondale on Tuesday, September 2, and the caravan will visit every Congressional District during the following two weeks, appearing at the circuit court room in Waukegan on Friday, September 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Ruth Hanna McCormick, candidate for United States senator, Frank L. Smith and Richard Yates, candidates for congressmen-at-large, Francis G. Blair, candidate for superintendent of public instruction, Clarence F. Buck, candidate for state treasurer, will be present, as well as Otis F. Glenn, United States senator, Louis L. Emmerson, governor, Fred E. Sterling, lieutenant governor, Oscar Carlstrom, attorney general, Wm. J. Stratton, secretary of state, Oscar Nelson, state auditor, Omer N. Custer, state treasurer, Ex-Senator L. Y. Sherman, General Milton J. Foreman, and others.

The meetings will be held to perfect the district and county organizations for the fall campaign.

The Republican committeemen, Republican committeewomen, county officers, and congressional, legislative, and county candidates will be present, and all Republicans of each district are urged to attend the mass meeting in Waukegan, Friday, September 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the circuit court room.

All for Speed

Compared with the Victorian trappings of a few years ago, the modern swimming suit is as the old high-bodied motor cars compared to a fast racing car of today. Style, speed, stamina, that's what we are aiming for now.—Woman's Home Companion.
