Choir Friday, 7:45 p.m.

The pastor has returned with a great deal of enthusiasm from his vacation. It will take a great deal of concerted and consecrated effort to bring everything in condition for a great year in the church. Our ambitions and aims are high. To realize them we must throw ourselves with holy abandon into their fulfillment. There must be no withholding of effort and sacrifice. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

The members of the choir are kindly requested to meet for reorganization Friday evening.

Members and friends of St. Paul's Evangelical church are cordially invited to join the St. Peter's Evangelical church of Northbrook in the celebration of their 80th anniversary Sunday, Sept. 14.

"The Prodigal Son and His Elder Brother" will be the theme for the pastor's talk next Sunday morning. While it might be thought there is little new to bring out in this double parable, yet there is a very vivid and worthwhile interpretation connected with these "whoopie" times of ours well worth studying. And who was "outside" when the story ended, the Prodigal or the Older Son?

Less than a month to the end of the church year when it is hoped to have every bill paid and the decks cleared for the next year's activities. Our church year begins October 1 and our annual conference meets Wednesday, Oct. 1, in the beautiful new Wilmette church.

Our Ladies' Aid will give a dinner, one of their well known bountiful ones, at the church this week Thursday, at 6:30. We hope our many friends as well as all our members, will attend and enjoy the good food and also the social atmosphere of these pleasant occasions. There will also be aprons and other articles on sale.

"Ever sincere prayer to God is heard and answered, but quite as frequently the answer is "No" as "Yes." Then also many prayers are unanswered because they are trivial in spirit and it would seem there is a determination of heaven not to hear what we are not determined heaven shall hear."
