Card Party Sept. 25

On Thursday evening, September 25, the Odd Fellows will hold a card and bunco party at Odd Fellows hall on Laurel avenue. The public is invited to attend.

Miss Virginia Grant of 535 Laurel avenue entertained twelve guests at luncheon and bridge on Saturday at the Medinah Athletic club in honor of a number of the girls who left for various schools this week.

Provide Fine Program for Blind, Wednesday

In appreciation of the work done for the blind by the students of The Mallinckrodt, the Red Cross provided a very enjoyable program at the school, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Dineen and Miss Hayes, both employed at the Red Cross office, Chicago, together with Miss Ford, who although blind, is an accomplished dramatist and soloist, and her accompanist visited the school. The songs and readings given by Miss Ford held the undivided attention of the students for a great portion of the afternoon.

Students of The Mallinckrodt have been very active in the transcribing of books for the blind. Special classes in Braille were organized last year for students who wished to give their spare time after school hours to this praise-worthy work. They were so fascinated with it that it held their attention during the summer months. New classes in Braille will also be opened this year at The Mallinckrodt.

Warns Against Sleek Magazine Salesmen

A warning against sleek haired young men purporting to be selling magazine subscriptions to win a scholarship at Northwestern university was issued yesterday by President Walter Dill Scott. Several complaints have been received recently by President Scott from persons who have been victimized by these alleged college students.

"Northwestern university awards no scholarships for magazine subscriptions," said President Scott, "and no one is authorized to solicit subscriptions in the name of the university."

Local and Personal
