The marriage of Miss Darlene Jones, daughter of Mrs. Ada Jones of Lake Forest, formerly of this city, and Mr. Walter Fidler, son of Mrs. J. G. Fidler of this city, took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the Lake Forest Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. C. G. Unangst, an uncle of the groom, officiating. The bride was charming in a gown of white satin with tulle veil worn in cap fashion and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Mable Griebe of Barrington as maid of honor who wore a dress of yellow taffeta and carried yellow roses. The Misses Dorothy Schultz of Barrington and Helen Frye of Lake Forest and Mesdames Gladys Bierwirth and Alice Zabel of Highland Park were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of yellow and orchid taffeta and carried bouquets of mixed flowers in yellow and orchid colors. Little Shirley Jones, niece of the bride who was flower girl, wore a frock of yellow satin. Master Charles Griebe was ring bearer and he wore a suit of yellow satin. The groom was attended by his brother Raymond Fidler as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Robert Dreiske, Kenneth Messrs. Robert Dreiske, Kenneth Griebe. Miss Pearl Stanley, niece of the bride, played the wedding march and Mr. Gieske sang. A reception followed in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Fidler have left on a motor trip to Kentucky and Tennessee. Upon their return they will reside on Lincoln avenue, Highland Park.

one of the funniest scenes in the entire film-record brought to the United States by Paramount; the entire personnel lined up, including the admiral himself, each man shaving the head of the man in front of him in preparation for the long winter night.

These are only a few of the heartily humorous incidents in the master picture, "With Byrd at the South Pole," which will show at the Alcyon theatre, starting Monday for three days. The film is filled with the romantic heroism, the homely humor, the daring feats and the awe-inspiring wonder of Byrd's gigantic undertaking. From the moment the expedition landed in Little America until the final trek for home, the moving picture document shows the hardships, the amusements, the drama and romance of the forty-two men who braved the perils of the unknown.

Assessor Ringdahl Is Beginning Work Early

Township Assessor Martin Ringdahl of Deerfield township believes in taking time by the forelock, and as next year is revaluation year for real estate, he is already getting the machinery of his office in motion with the able assistance of Deputy Assessor Frank Laing with a view to getting this enormous task completed as early as possible in 1931. Property owners can greatly facilitate this work by co-operating with the assessor and his assistants in revaluation work, and the public generally is urged to help by affording the necessary information readily and promptly.

Busy as he was with all the details of the gigantic South Pole expedition on his shoulders, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, whose achievement in circling the South Pole by airplane and exploring the ice-covered territory at "the bottom of the world" has stirred a world-wide acclaim, was never too preoccupied to take note of the interesting human-interest sights which occurred during the stay of the expedition in the Antarctic.

Willard Vander Veer, Paramount camera-man with the expedition, says the intrepid leader was indefatigable in calling the attention of himself and his co-worker, Joseph Rucker, to interesting incidents he ran across; a battle between seal and sledge dog puppies; a roundup of the solemn penguins whose insulted dignity made
