

went inside and lit the fire in the fireplace. Then Mr. Whitacre told us a hard luck story, and we then went to bed. The scouts talked about an hour and fell asleep. We awoke at 6:30 a.m. Mr. Englebrecht immediately left for work. We had breakfast and went on a six mile hike. Later we played games, and went home about 2:30 p.m.

The scouts present were Scoutmaster Englebrecht, Assistant Scoutmaster Frank Perkins Jr.; Mr. Witacre, Scouts Norman Schroeder, Robert Stahl, Robert Perkins and Edward Perkins, and Cubs, Lyell Gleason, Kenneth Johnson and Frank Barn Grover, and scout Lloyd Von Sande. —Troop Reporter Harold Stahl and Edward Perkins, Troop 54 Half Day. SCOUTS OF TROOP 33
HIKE TO GAGE'S LAKE

Thirteen members of Troop 33 took part in the second September overnight camp at Gages lake last Friday and Saturday. The boys were taken in the cars of Mr. Howard Moran, Mr. F. S. Wichman, and Mrs. H. R. Smith to the lake where they spent the night.

The troop had a splendid opportunity to show what it was made of when a rain and wind storm blew up in the early hours of the morning and threatened to dampen the spirits of the campers.

Swimming on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning was conducted under the leadership of Dick Wichman, junior assistant scoutmaster in charge of the watercraft activities of the troop.

NEW SEA SCOUT SHIP REGISTERES

The new Ship's committee of Sea Scout Ship 62 made up of Messrs. Roger Bronson, chairman; A. W. Fellows, M. P. Wamboldt and Harold Ambler all of Lake Forest have Mr. Benjamin Carpenter as the skipper of this recently organized group. These new Sea Scouts have already taken several training cruises on the Council Sea Scout schooner the "Albatross." The North Shore Area council welcomes this ship to the Boy Scout Movement and congratulate it on the ambitious program they are carrying out.

HIGHLAND PARK TROOP INTERESTING DADS

During the past week the troop committee of Troop 33 of the Highland Park Lincoln school has been reorganized with Mr. R. B. Anderson as chairman, the position formerly held by Mr. E. H. Klaber. The remainder of the committee has also been reorganized with Mr. J. B. Garnett, Mr. A. J. Wells, Mr. W. F. Nelson, and Mr. D. McLellan also holding positions.

The educational department of the committee is now headed by Mr. Garnett. Mr. G. S. Canright formerly held this position. The thrift department, formerly directed by Mr. O. R. Huncke, has been taken over by Mr. Wells. Mr. McLellan has replaced Mr. H. Moran in charge of the camping department. Mr. Nelson became troop advisor, relieving Mr. G. Fox.

While the new committee is considered as official, the members of the old committee are continuing to work in their departments and assist the new men, who will be more or less in training until the end of the present calendar year. All fathers of members of Troop 33 are considered as members of the committee, as they were last year. Each father is connected with one of the departments of the troop committee and is called upon from time to time to function in some capacity with the troop. This relieves the members of the actual committee and interests more fathers in the troop activities.

According to reports from the new committee, the program of the troop for the present season will be an exceptionally interesting one.
