

Foods for Fall—

AT A SAVING!

(Personal)
 There are two ways of doing business: charging prices as high as customers will pay, or charging prices as low as a great many customers make possible.
A & P chooses the low-price way, and so A & P prices go lower as the number of its customers grows higher.

Boy Scouts

Boy Scout Troop No. 30 were the guests of Mrs. Sidney Miller and daughter Dorothy on an all night hike to their cottage near the Des Plaines River last Friday evening. The troop is, this week resuming its regular Wednesday evening weekly meetings at the Elm Place school with an enrollment of 34 members.—John L. Udell, scoutmaster.

Waukegan Church Given Stained Glass Window

The main altar of the Immaculate Conception church at Waukegan will be graced by a beautiful copy of Murillo's Immaculate Conception, which arrived in Waukegan from Venice, Italy last week. The piece was donated to the church by Miss Laura Perrin, librarian at the Waukegan Public library.

The gold glass mosaic, a type involving the highest ingenuity of the artist, was made in one of the best mosaic studios in Italy. It will honor the memory of Miss Perrin's parents, Levi and Elizabeth Perrin, prominent early day residents of Waukegan.

City Council Meeting Brief Monday Evening

The city council session Monday was a brief one, and only three members were present. In the absence of Major Benjamin F. Lewis and Commissioner William Reay, Commissioner Lyle Gourley presided. The other members present were Commissioners W. J. Brown and Julius Zimmer. The only business was the approval of a few contractors' estimates, which matter required immediate attention. When this business was taken care of the council adjourned.

Despite the slump, sales of golf equipment are at record levels. Certainly! People must have the necessities of life.—Washington Post.
