 Jesus Christ," and having "fought a good fight and kept the faith, finished his course" and has received his crown of life from the Lord he loved and served. His home is in St. Louis, where a broken hearted father and several brothers and sisters reside; his mother passed away about three years ago. At both church service and Epworth League, on Sunday, this loved boy was remembered and his example and forceful character will be long cherished among us. Funeral services were held at our church Tuesday afternoon, with the pastor officiating. A detail of soldiers from Fort Sheridan and the Post band, gave the military honors rendered all soldiers and the body was shipped to the home in St. Louis.

Rev. Joseph Taylor delivered a brief but very strong message Sunday morning in place of the pastor, who was present but confined his remarks to a tribute to young Paul Pierce, whose sudden death is noted above. Oscar Meyers, the blind singer, rendered a beautiful solo in his usual fine voice, with Mrs. Elmer Baum at the piano.

Next Sunday, the last before our annual conference, the pastor will preach, using the parable announced for last Sunday, "The Two Sons, or, the Test of Deeds." This is not the parable of the Prodigal Son, but another in Matthew's Gospel, not so familiar but containing a great truth most appropriate for this season of the church year.

Following the established custom of the church, the Ladies' Aid held their annual meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Bert Gail, on North St. Johns avenue, and elected the following officers for the church year which begins October 1: President, Mrs. Julia Evans; vice president, Mrs. Arthur Trout; recording secretary, Mrs. Bert Bail; treasurer, Mrs. Kathryn Kelley; financial secretary, Mrs. Fred Okey; chaplain, to be appointed by the president. The aid has had a successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Okey, retiring president.

Remember, that the change from daylight-saving time back to standard time takes place this coming Sunday at 2 a. m., and hours of Sunday school and church service will be in accordance with this change.

The final meeting of the official board for the church year takes place at the parsonage next Monday at 8 p. m. Let every member be present.

The Lake County Sunday School convention is in full swing today. The attendance is good thus far, a capacity audience is looked for at the young people's banquet and at the evening service.

Services next Sunday will be held at their scheduled time. The Sunday School will begin at 9:45, all departments are urging their scholars to be present and work toward a perfect attendance on Rally Sunday which comes on October 5. The morning worship service will start at 11:00 at which time the pastor will use as his subject "An Average Personality." In the evening he will speak on "Unprofitable Servants." The evening service will begin at 7:30 instead of 8:00 p. m. All evening services will be scheduled at 7:30 hereafter.

A missionary prayer service will be held next Wednesday evening. This service will be conducted in the interest of others.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Thursday evening.

The W. M. S. will have a district rally at the Northfield Evangelical church on Tuesday, Sept. 30. All ladies are urged to go.

Next Sunday will be our quarterly communion day. Pastor H. W. Lambert, of Chicago, will preach at 10:45 a. m. and conduct the communion service. He will give the people a good message. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to hear him.

The pastor will have charge of the evening service. He will speak on, "The Christian Believer's Position in Grace." Eph. 1:3. Those who cannot attend the morning service will be given an opportunity to partake of the Lord's Supper at this service.

All the services of the day should be well attended. Let it be remembered that we go back to standard time on Sunday. We are pleased to note that during the past three months the average attendance at the Sunday evening services was exactly the same as the average attendance at the morning services. In view of the present trend to neglect the house of God, the attendance all along has been good. However considering the population of the community, many more should be found in the house of God. In their absence they are sustaining a spiritual loss of which, for the present, they are not conscious.

The Bible school meets at 9:30 a. m. The lessons of the past quarter will be reviewed. The general title is, "The Greatness of the God-Fearing." Devotional reading: Ps. 8.

Sunday, Oct. 5, will be Rally day. A large attendance is expected at the Bible school and at all of the services. Rev. F. G. Lasse, recently returned from Africa, where he labored as a missionary, will be the speaker. It will be a rare privilege to hear him. Plan to attend. Many visitors are expected.

Miss Hedwig Gieser will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p. m. It will be a helpful meeting.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. One of Highland Park's greatest needs, is more people who know how to pray and who will take time to pray. Come to the prayer meeting. Requests for prayer are always welcomed.

The out-door service held in front of the church on last Sunday evening was another occasion of inspiration and blessing. One lady remarked at the close, "This was a good service." It was the last service of its kind for this season, but the memory of it will linger with us for some time to come.

Here are two comforting texts: "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee." Isa. 42:2. "Underneath are the everlasting arms." Deut. 33:27. In response to a special delivery letter, the following telegram was sent not long ago to one in great perplexity. "We are remembering you so specially in prayer. Do not be distressed. God is able for every situation. See Isa. 54:17. Will write you tomorrow." In dictating the message to the lady at the Western Union office the sender was cut off before the message was finished. He called up again and another young woman answered. When he had finished she exclaimed: "I am glad that you were cut off, for I needed that message myself." People everywhere and in unexpected places need the assurance and the comfort of God's Word.
