Northwestern Gridders
All Tuned Up for Game
With Tulane Saturday

A final tuning up of all parts will mark the practice sessions of Northwestern's grid machine this week as it prepares to cope with the highly touted Tulane eleven in the opening grid engagement of the season here Saturday, October 4.

Coach Dick Hanley has brought his team along fast during the two weeks they have been together, and by Saturday they should be ready to face the Greenies who last year won the Southern Conference championship. The Wildcats, led by Capt. Hank Bruder, have appeared especially effective in their last few scrimmages with the freshmen.

Saturday's game should go a long way towards deciding the superiority, one way or another, of southern and midwestern football. The Tulane team figures among the topnotchers in the Dixie league, while Northwestern is representative of the brand of ball being played in this section.

That Tulane is bent on upsetting Northwestern, there is no question. The southern aggregation remembers the drubbing extended the Wildcats in 1925 when a strong Tulane team won by a score of 18 to 6.

The Green Wave eleven will be accompanied on the trip northward by a special train bearing nearly a thousand students, alumni, and followers from New Orleans.

North Shore Sisterhood
Meeting Oct. 15 to Have
Program by Mischakoff

The opening meeting of the Sisterhood of North Shore Congregation Israel for the season of 1930-31 will be on Wednesday, October 15, at the temple in Glencoe.

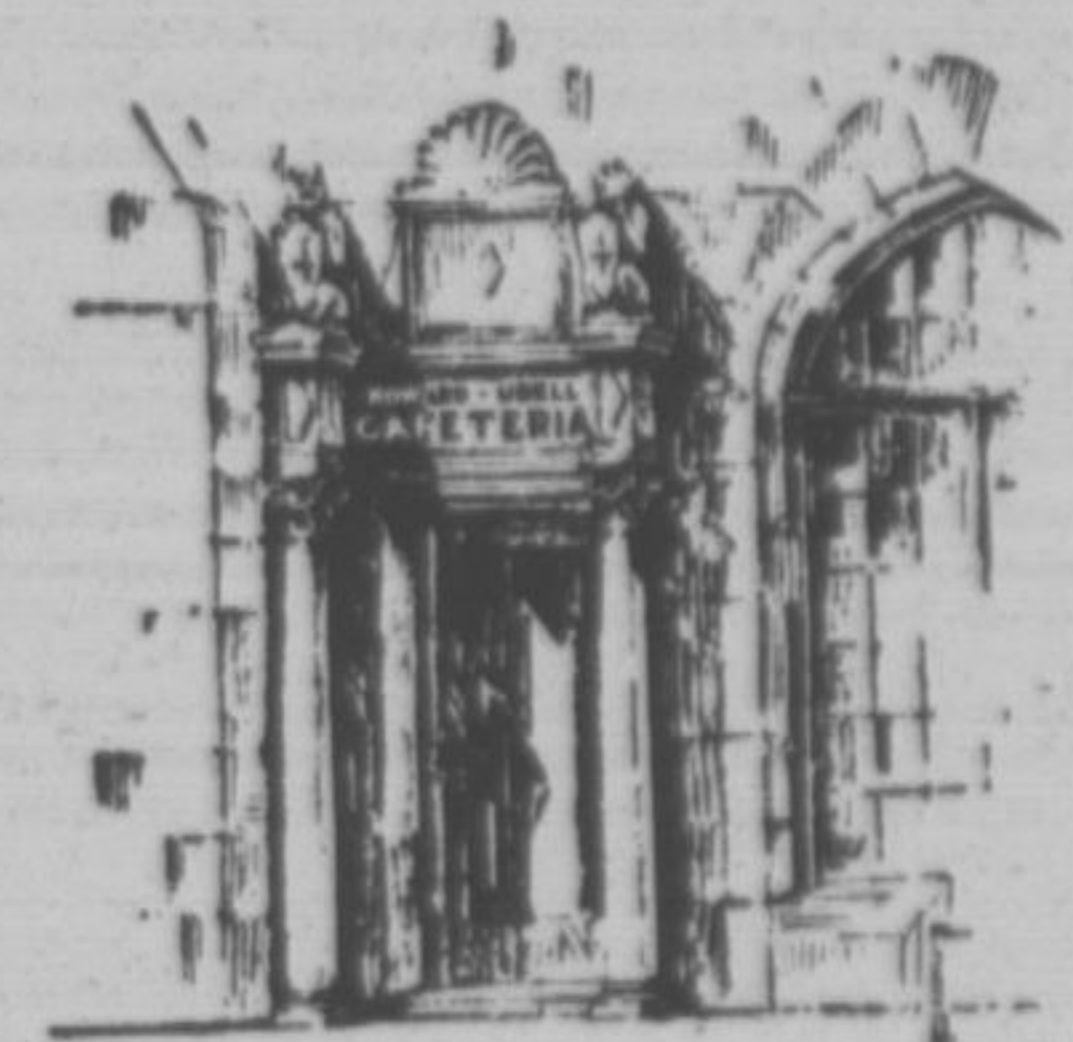

The program for the afternoon will be given by Mischa Mischakoff the new concert meister of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Mischakoff came here a fugitive from Russia where he studied under Korgueff and Auer and in 1913 won the gold medal at the Conservatory in Petrograd. In 1923 at the Stadium Audition, in New York, Mr. Mischakoff was the only one selected out of 700 contestants for an appearance with the Philharmonic Orchestra in New York. He has been concert meister of the Philadelphia Symphony under Stikofsky and has also filled the same noteworthy place as concert meister under Walter Damrosch with the New York Symphony.

Mr. Mischakoff has received the highest and most noteworthy praise by all the New York critics. The N. Y. Herald says that he "played with fine tone, skill, intelligence and feeling" and the N. Y. Times says that he "displayed a singing crystal pure tone, skillful discrimination of musical values and enormous technique." The N. Y. Sun and the Post were equally generous in praise.

Mr. Harold Van Horne will accompany Mr. Mischakoff at his appearance before the North Shore Sisterhood on Wednesday, October 15. Guests are cordially invited.
