

NAME WINNERS OF FOOTBALL TICKETS

Three Get Admissions to Game and Five Awarded Theatre Tickets; Details

Winners of free tickets to Northwestern university football home games and to the Aleyon theatre offered through advertisements of local business houses in last week's Highland Park Press are herewith announced, and in this issue appears another double-page advertisement offering more free tickets for best estimates on the scores of football games to be played next Saturday.

The winners of free tickets to Northwestern-Ohio game on October 11 who came nearest giving correct answers to the questions in last week's advertisements in the Press are three:

Win Football Tickets

1. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrook, Deerfield, Illinois.
2. Bloss Vail, 217 Laurel avenue, Highland Park.
3. W. S. Howell, 1010 Main street, Evanston.

The five next nearest the correct answers, and who will receive free tickets to the Aleyon theatre are:

Theatre Ticket Winners

Howard Mowers Jr., 1019 Sheridan road; Red Fell, Highland Park; Mrs. Geo. M. Stevens, 176 E. Laurel avenue, Highland Park; H. G. Pertz, 704 Ridgewood drive, Highland Park; R. J. Roeder, Care of Braun Bros. Oil company, Highland Park.

Another Chance

In another double-page advertisement in the Press next week, will appear 13 separate ads, each containing the names of universities which meet on football fields Saturday of that week, and contestants for tickets will be requested to estimate the total of the scores made by all the teams in these games.

Free tickets to the Northwestern-Centre game, October 25, will be awarded to the three who first guess nearest the total of the final scores in these games.

Dance Saturday at Oak Terrace School

The Oak Terrace school assisted by the members of the P. T. A. will hold a dance Saturday evening in the school. The committee headed by Mr. Viti is making every effort to make this one of the biggest events of the year. Ellsworth Sheridan and his Foss Park orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the evening.

Eastern Star Will Hold Friend's Night

Friend's night will be observed at Campbell chapter No. 712, O. E. S. next Wednesday evening. This will be one of the outstanding meetings of the year and a large attendance is anticipated.

The card party given last Wednesday evening by the chapter was largely attended and those present report a most enjoyable evening.

Registration Days in Lake Co. Oct. 14 and 28 Polling Places Open

It is announced that registration days for voters in Lake county will be October 14 and 28. On the 14th the regular precinct polling places will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the convenience of those desiring to register, and on the 28th from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

It is pointed out that the election officials probably will see that all names of voters which they know to be qualified to vote in the several precincts will be entered in the poll books, but it would be well for those who have any doubts in the matter to visit the polling places and be sure that their names are registered. New residents in any precinct since last election should make sure that their names are in the books. Those who have not moved since they last voted in township, county or state elections have little to worry about in the registration matter.

Elm Place-Green Bay P. T. A. Meet October 15

The Elm Place and Green Bay road school's Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular October meeting Wednesday, October 15 at 7:45 o'clock.

This will take the form of a house-warming as it will be held in the new gymnasium. A member of the school board and Mr. Hart in charge of Physical education, will address the meeting. Since Physical education is a new project at these schools it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of fathers and mothers, so that Mr. Hart can tell of this new activity and how the parents may cooperate. There will be an inspection of the new gymnasium and refreshments will be served. Mrs. B. C. Hayes, president.

Highwood Lutheran Church Plan Bazaar

The annual bazaar of the Highwood Lutheran church will be held Friday and Saturday, October 17-18 in Odd Fellows hall. A chicken supper will be served on Saturday evening from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Dr. S. B. Freehof to Speak Friday

Rabbi Solomon B. Freehof will conduct the service at North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, next Friday evening, October 10, at 8:15 o'clock. The theme of his sermon will be: "The Selective Social Memory—A Psychological View of Judaism." All are welcome.

Many Attend Dances Every Saturday Night

A very large crowd attended the Saturday evening dance given under the auspices of temple No. 300, Pythian Sisters, at Masonic temple.

Music is furnished by the Jockey club orchestra of Des Plaines. This orchestra furnished the music at the weekly dances held by the park board every Thursday during the summer at Sunset park.

Crusaders to Begin North Shore Drive on Oct. 13; Plan Campaign

Plans for the starting of an intensive campaign for the obtaining of members have been drafted by officials of the Crusaders, an association of men opposed to the prohibition amendment. The campaign will be started on the North Shore on October 13 and will be extended to all communities between Evanston and Waukegan, according to Farwell Winston, president of the Lake Forest chapter of the association.

The plans to provide for a drive to last one week. During that week a new chapter will be formed at Waukegan, while efforts will be made to increase the membership of the Lake Forest and Highland Park chapters. It is also expected that a chapter will be formed in North Chicago after the organization is completed here, or the plan of a Waukegan and North Chicago chapter is also being considered.

Preliminary organization has started for the Waukegan chapter. The Crusaders intend to make an intensive drive in the Fall election in behalf of the candidates favoring prohibition reform.

Dancing School Opens With Fine Program

A very beautiful program was presented at the new branch of the "Gladys Hight School of Dancing," 737 Main street, Thursday, Oct. 2.

The children who performed were excellently trained in toe, tap, and aerobic work. Their grace and rhythm were perfect and the large audience was charmed.

Mignon Gaskill was among the Evanston children; she has studied several years with Gladys Hight. She is the daughter of Mrs. McKembrie Gaskill of 401 Davis street.

Miss Hight will hold classes daily in her Evanston school. It is equipped with all the necessary bars, mirrors, aerolatic mats and belts which are so essential to good teaching.

Community Garden Class Meets Oct. 15

The Community Garden class of the Highland Park Woman's club will meet Wednesday morning, October 15 at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry McKay, 830 S. Linden avenue.

This will be the year's business meeting but after the serious affairs two garden books will be reviewed by Mrs. Dwight Davis and Mrs. Thomas Dawson.

Hold Rummage Sale in Ravinia Oct. 22-23

The Philanthropy committee of the Ravinia Woman's club will hold its annual rummage sale, October 22-23. The sale will be held in one of the store buildings on Roger Williams avenue. During these days of fall house-cleaning, housewives are urged to bear these dates in mind and donate all discarded articles which may be saleable to the committee for this sale.

WOMEN VOTERS TO MEET HERE OCT. 15

Highland Park League Session at Y. W.; Mayor and Mr. Millard Talk

The Highland Park League of Woman Voters will meet on Wednesday October 15, at the Y. W. C. A. Luncheon will be served promptly at 12:30 and reservations should be phoned early to Mrs. Dwight Davis, 1791. Mrs. Hopkins wishes it announced that meetings will begin at 1 o'clock immediately after luncheon, so that it is extremely important to be on time for luncheon.

Mrs. Blasier, program chairman, has planned a "city" program for this meeting. Mayor Benjamin Lewis, and Mr. Everett Millard have very kindly agreed to address the league. Mayor Lewis will discuss city problems, and Mr. Millard will outline the duties of the Park Board. It is hoped that all members will make a special effort to attend this meeting. (Continued on page 43)

Dr. H. D. Williams to Address Joint P. T. A.

The Ravinia and Braeside Parent-Teacher association are fortunate in announcing for their first program on Wednesday evening, October 15 at 8 o'clock, Dr. Herbert Daniel Williams, professor of psychology at Northwestern university, and director of the Big Brother and Big Sister Federation, who will talk on "What the Child Has a Right to Expect from His Parents." All parents are urged to be present.

Big Fall Concert at Highwood M. E. Church

The Cuyler Swedish Mission church choir, of Chicago, will give a Sacred Concert at the Highwood Swedish Methodist church on Thursday evening, October 16, at 8 o'clock. An enjoyable evening is assured to all who will be able to attend this treat in the realm of music and song. A nominal admission will be charged adults.

All children will be admitted for half price. The proceeds from the event will go towards the building fund of the local church. The public is invited.

Will Preach Sunday at Trinity Church

The Rev. Dr. Wolcott, who has been detained in Highland Park longer than he expected by Mrs. Wolcott's illness, plans to preach in Trinity church next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

He and Mrs. Wolcott expect to return to Florida the following week.

Card and Bunco Party October 20

A card and bunco party will be given by Sheridan Rebekah lodge at Odd Fellows hall, Laurel avenue on Monday evening, October 20. The public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.
