

FOOTBALL TICKETS TO BE GIVEN AWAY

Another Contest this Week; See Double Page Adv. in this Issue of Press

Another football ticket contest is staged this week in a double-page advertisement containing 13 separate ads, each carrying names of universities which meet on football fields on Saturday.

Contestants for free football tickets to Northwestern-Centre game, October 25 and for free tickets to the Alcyon theatre are requested to estimate the total of the scores to be made by all the teams in these games.

To the first three who guess nearest the total of the final scores free tickets to the Northwestern-Centre game will be awarded. To the five nearest, free tickets to the Alcyon theatre will be given.

All answers must reach the office of the Highland Park Press before noon on Saturday, October 18 (or be postmarked). Be sure name and address is on each.

Walker Flinn Winner of Club Championship at Sunset Valley Club

Walker Flinn defeated Paul Olson in the final for the Sunset Valley Golf club championship, 8 and 6. Walker played a steady game.

The scores were:
Flinn 42-36-36—(4-3-5)
Olson 44-37-41—(4-4-6)

Walker has been a member of the club since its organization and has kept patiently trying to win this championship, coming through this year with two events to his credit.

Walker has many friends in Highland Park, being one of the town's own, all of whom are proud of his success.

The rebuilt number 9 green meets with universal approval and will be in excellent condition by spring as will also the new practice green.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Sunset Valley Golf club will be held at the Green Tea Pot on November 3rd, the first Monday of the month.

Preaches Next Sunday

Dr. C. G. Wallenius

Dr. C. G. Wallenius will preach at the Swedish Methodist church, Highwood, next Sunday evening (Swedish night) at 7:45 o'clock. Everyone who enjoys hearing the gospel proclaimed in the Swedish language is invited to attend the service.
