

Among the Local Churches

First United Evangelical Church

Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor

The attendance at the rally day services on October 5, marked a nice increase over the record of the previous year. There were additions to the Bible school on last Sunday and new friends were welcomed at the church services. The response to the spiritual appeal at the evening service was an evidence of the presence of the Spirit of God.

Rev. and Mrs. Unangst are spending a week at La Grange, Indiana, visiting with relatives and enjoying a brief vacation.

Rev. Harold Street, of Chicago, will preach on next Sunday at 10:45 a.m., and 7:45 p.m. Mr. Street occupied the pulpit very acceptably on August 31, and our people will be glad to hear him on next Sunday. Strangers are cordially invited to the services of the day.

The Bible school meets at 9:30 a.m. There are classes for all ages and people of all ages are attending. Lesson subject, "Simeon and Anna." Lk. 2:25-39. The purpose of the lesson is to inculcate faith as the supreme means of developing character. Come!

Meeting of Parents and Teachers

The S. S. board has arranged to hold a meeting of the parents of our scholars and the teachers of the Bible school at the church on Friday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Clarence H. Benson, director of the courses in Religious Education at the Moody Bible institute, will speak on, "The Three Fields of Christian Education." Other interesting features will be added to the program. All the parents of our Sunday school scholars are cordially invited to be present. The evening will be most profitable and it will afford a fine opportunity for a better acquaintance with each other. There will be a social hour at the close. The Raedeke trio, of Chicago, will sing.

Mrs. Chas. Thorson will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p.m. topic, "Christians and Sunday." Matt. 12:1-8. All of our young people are urged to attend this meeting.

Two prayer meetings will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The one group will meet at the church. The other group will meet in a private home, the place to be announced on Sunday.

The pastor is planning to preach an illustrated sermon that will be of special interest to the young people of the Bible school on Sunday morning November 2. Boys and girls keep this in mind and plan to remain for the church service.

Here is a good Bible text for our readers: "He that keepeth thee will not slumber." Ps. 121:3.

God Always Near

At a prayer meeting a brother exclaimed, "O Lord, I bless Thee that I have enjoyed Thy presence On the water, and In the water, and Under the water." A friend followed the good man, and sought an explanation. "Why," said the brother, "I was once a sailor, and I found the Lord with me On the water in many a voyage; I was wrecked, and He was my friend In the water; and after that I became a diver, and, blessed be His name; the Lord Jesus has been precious to me when I have been Fathoms Down."

Where can a believer be, and find it impossible to abide in fellowship with his Lord?

C. H. Spurgeon.

Rev. L. H. Laubenstein of Oak Park, Illinois will be present at the 11 a.m. worship service to present the cause of our Chicago hospital. If it is possible for him to remain for the entire worship service, he will also preach for us next Sunday morning. If not, the pastor will speak on "The Stewardship of Time." The young people will meet at 7 p.m. The pastor will speak at the 7:45 service on "A Christian, and Patience."

The Young People's circle will meet Monday evening at 7:45.

The Philathea class will have their annual banquet on Tuesday evening.

The mid-week service is taking on a new interest. We urge a larger attendance of the friends as well as the members of the church.

Sunday, Oct. 26 will be observed as Home Missionary day, at which time an offering will be received to help our Lockwood avenue church erect a new building.

A church social will be held on Friday evening, October 31, at the home of Miss Charlotte and Mrs. G. L. Brand. A good time will be assured to all.

Our annual Father and Son Banquet will be held on Friday evening, November 7. We have secured Hon. J. O. A. Preus, former Gov. of Minn., as our guest speaker. We hope to see every father and son of Bethany present.
