

Legislative Voters League Endorsement for Rep. Candidates

Among the candidates for the state legislature endorsed by the Legislative Voters League are four in the Eighth district, composed of McHenry, Boone and Lake counties. The League's recommendations are as follows:

"House—Richard J. Lyons (Rep.) of Mundelein, real estate; finishing first term, in which he gave close attention to legislative duties and made outstanding good record. Lee McDonough (Rep.) of Waukegan, plumbing and heating contractor; substantial, hard working member; made good first term record. William M. Carroll (Rep.) of Woodstock, lawyer; served creditably as assistant state's attorney of McHenry county for seven years; well equipped for legislative service. Thomas A. Bolger (Dem.) of McHenry; farmer; filled several local offices creditably; stands well in community.

"Lyons and McDonough deserve reelection because of their records, and Carroll appears better qualified for legislative work than the fourth candidate the report read."

Beautiful girls and beautiful gowns — the shimmer of silk in the web of temptation. "Wear your brains on your back," is the cynical motto of a clever and worldly-wise woman, who lets nothing stand in the way of her ambition for her son. Then a girl comes into her son's life to challenge her supremacy, and the battle is on! A thrilling drama of New York Life, against a glittering background of the world of fashion.
