

HIGHWOOD TIES EVANSTON TEAM

Neither Team Scores in Game Last Sunday; Play Peaches Next Sunday

In a sweeping wind, Highwood played their old rivals from Evanston on the local's field. Next Sunday Highwood plays the American Evening Peaches here, in one of the feature games of the Midwest league. Last year the Peaches were the co-champs of that league. The locals beat them 7 to 6 last year, but as Highwood was not in the league it did not affect the Peaches' standing in the league. A good game is promised Sunday as the paper team want revenge.

In last Sunday's game Highwood showed a tight defense, but their offense was very sluggish. This was due perhaps, to several of Highwoods players being on the injured list and others having to play out of their regular positions.

Punting Duel

Lindenmeyer and Berome had a punting duel, with the Highwood booter holding the edge due to his abil-

F. P. Hawkin's Daughter Dies in California

Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins Ball, wife of Joseph Ball of Pasadena, Calif., passed away at her home in California, Tuesday, Oct. 21st.

She is the daughter of Mr. F. P. Hawkins of this city and was born in Highland Park. She has resided here intermittently during the past five or six years. Besides her husband she leaves a son Peter Ball of Cleveland, Ohio, her father, Mr. F. P. Hawkins, a brother Mr. R. W. Hawkins, and a sister Miss Frances Hawkins of this city, and a sister Mrs. James Schultz of Laguna Beach, Calif., to survive her. Mrs. Ball's many friends here will regret to learn of her death.

H. P. Music Club Enjoys Delightful Program

On Wednesday, Oct. 22, the Highland Park Music club was most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. F. N. Bard on Egandale road, Mrs. W. D. Young, the president, disposed of the routine business after which Mrs. Buckingham, program chairman, announced the artists for the afternoon. Miss Sophie Seligmann, though not a member of the club, accompanied Mrs. Nathan's group.

Sisterhood State Meeting in Glencoe

The seventh annual meeting of the Illinois State Federation of Temple Sisterhoods will convene at North Shore Temple in Glencoe on Tuesday, Nov. 11, and Wednesday, Nov. 12. These meetings have been held yearly in various parts of the state for the past seven years so that there might be a discussion of accomplishments and an interchange of ideas between the various groups forming the State Federation of Sisterhoods.
