

"Mile-A-Minute-Marty" by Willits Hudson-Essex Co., 29 So. 2nd St.

Folks have said some of our Auto values are almost spooky, but they always turned out REAL!

Highland Park Methodist Church
North Ave. at Lauretta Place
Rev. Frank D. Hopkins, Minister
Next Sunday morning the pastor will use as his theme the "Older Brother" in what is known as the parable of "The Prodigal Son." The prodigal himself was the subject of study last Sunday but this older brother, with his peculiar attitude toward his father and the young scapegrace will repay consideration and is rarely given more than a passing reference. Here again we will discover some very keen applications to present day life and thinking; and not in the world but in the church.

The Epworth league gives a social party to the members and other young people of the church this week Thursday evening in the social rooms of the church. The committee in charge guarantees an evening of wholesome fun and "eats."

At next Sunday morning's service there will be the installation and recognition service of the newly elected officers of the Church school, the Ladies Aid and the Women's Foreign Missionary society. The officers of the Epworth League were installed by the pastor last Sunday night but will also receive recognition at this service.

The Ladies Aid holds a bakery sale of good things to eat at the Laegler Drug Store next Saturday forenoon. Home made pies, cakes, rolls, doughnuts, etc., will be offered to all comers as long as they last.

Our Church school is showing a fine "come back" after the summer slump and promises to steadily increase in attendance and interest under the leadership of our superintendent, Wm. H. Holgate. Additional room will soon be much needed but where it will come from no one at present knows, but some provision will be made for this when the need becomes acute.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kuhlman entertained the officers and teachers of the Church school this week Tuesday evening, it being their regular monthly meeting.

Loyalty Sunday at St. Paul's Oct. 26.

A final appeal goes out to all members and friends of St. Paul's Evangelical church to observe Loyalty Sunday at a special worship service Oct. 26. Young and old will unite in worship. All the organizations of the church will co-operate. If you are accustomed to going to church regularly bring a friend. If you drive an automobile bring some old mother and father who otherwise would have to walk. Show your loyalty in every way.

To facilitate matters as to seeing the audience we will be seated in groups. The young people will occupy the balcony. The men the right side of the auditorium and the ladies the left. The two front rows of pews are reserved for juniors and some of the intermediates. The beginners and primaries will be seated on the platform.

Special music will be rendered by the choir, young people, junior-intermediates and the little folks.

Reformation day services and Holy communion Sunday, Nov. 2.

Members of the church council will meet Wednesday, Nov. 5.
