Lake Zurich Boy Is Infantile Paralysis Victim; Close Schools

With the death of Walter Diehl of Lake Zurich last week from infantile paralysis, the Ela Township high school in which he was a student was closed for the balance of the week while the Lake Zurich grade school also was closed to prevent a spread of dread disease.

Diehl was taken sick Oct. 11 and rushed to the Lake County General hospital where he died a few days later. He was sixteen years old.

The high school was closed when it was found that the youth had infantile paralysis and the entire school was fumigated while all of the 75 students were placed under observation so that the first symptoms of illness would be a signal for action.
