

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor
Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill. Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield Locals

"School Days" with Wesley Barry also "Felix in Love" will be shown at the movies in the Deerfield Grammar school on Friday evening, Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m.

The A. O. O. A. Girl Reserve organized recently at the Deerfield school and the following officers were elected: President, Irene Juhrend; vice president, Theresa Scavuzzo; secretary, Freda Boone; treasurer, Bernice Juhrend. Meetings are held every Thursday afternoon.

Mmes. Harry, Raymond and Ray Clavey and Mrs. Waite were among the guests at a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. I. Rasmussen of Highland Park on Friday.

Mr. C. Siffert left Friday, Oct. 17 by motor for New York City, where he will meet his wife and small daughter upon their return from Germany, where they have spent the past five months with relatives.

Fred Mericle underwent a tonsillectomy at Zion last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Coppens have rented the lower flat of Mrs. Brown's apartment on Chestnut street.

The Whitfield family are residing in the Browning house on Warrington road.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gooder attended the Northwestern-Illinois football game at Champaign on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman and son Jack of White Fish Bay, Wis., visited Mr. Willman's mother, Mrs. Minnie Willman of Grand avenue on Saturday.

Among the Deerfield Legionnaire, who attended the eighth district meeting at Highwood on Friday evening were, Dan Hunt, George Briggs, W. Tennerman, Chas. Kapschull, John Farner and Clarence Huhn.

James O'Connor of Deerfield avenue is recovering from an attack of Yellow Jaundice.

Mrs. E. J. Knickerbocker, who has been seriously ill in the Highland Park hospital is convalescing at her home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Taylor of Park avenue are spending the week with their daughter at Eau Claire, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Mericle of Waukegan road are entertaining relatives from Iowa.

Miss Adelaide Pew, of Warren, Ohio who is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Pugh, of Lake Forest visited her cousin, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr. with Mrs. Pugh on Saturday.

Deerfield Grammar school was dismissed on Friday to afford the teachers an opportunity of visiting other schools.

Mrs. E. O. Krauss of Mill road left on Wednesday for Florida.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson (Edith Pettis) is recovering from a recent goitre operation at the Augustana hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harder entertained a group of friends in honor of Mr. Harder's birthday anniversary at their home on Grand avenue Saturday evening.

J. D. Meyers has returned from a business trip to Tennessee.

Mrs. D. W. Meyer will entertain the Tuesday evening Sewing club at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey, Illinois, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer.

Miss Zoe Anderson, who has been staying with her sister Mrs. Raymond Meyer, has returned to her home in Glenview.

Mrs. James P. Freeman and Mrs. C. A. Wolf Dorcas circle No. 2, at the Freeman home on Hazel avenue, Thursday, Oct. 30. It will be a busy afternoon and ladies are requested to come at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kapschull and two sons Glenn and Charles returned on Friday from a motor trip to Boston, Mass., where Mr. Kapschull attended as delegate from the eighth district, the National American Legion convention.

Mrs. John Weber of Second street underwent a major operation at the Highland Park hospital last Thursday. She is recovering nicely.

Miss Josephine Woodman entertained circle No. 1 of the Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening.

Miss Margaret Hunt and Miss Jean Nygard will be hostesses to the teachers bridge club on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Muhle.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended a meeting of the Executive committee of the Lake County Council of Religious Education at the Waukegan Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Matters pertaining to the new county organizations, leadership training in the community and church schools of the standards were discussed.

Mrs. Farner's mother suffered a broken arm and other injuries when she fell at her home in Chicago on Friday.

Mrs. J. R. Notz entertained a group of friends from Chicago at a luncheon bridge at the Deerfield avenue Tea Room on Saturday.

Mrs. John Farner entertained two tables of five hundred at their home on Saturday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Granquist, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strub, Miss Alice Off and Mr. Simons of Chicago.

J. Webb Griffin Passes Away Oct. 15

Mr. J. Webb Griffin, father of Mrs. Chas. E. Piper of Chestnut street, died at the Piper residence on Wednesday Oct. 15, 1930.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Second Presbyterian church parlors, Evanston. Interment at Memorial Park.

Besides Mrs. Piper, a sister, Mrs. Lida Griffen Breese of Evanston survive him.

While Mr. Griffin had been ailing since last summer, his condition was not considered serious and he had planned to return to Evanston hotel where he had been making his home.

Metcalf House Is Damaged by Fire

Saturday noon, one of the houses on the County Line road owned by Dr. W. B. Metcalf caught fire from an over heated furnace and only the quick action of the fire departments saved it from ruins. Northbrook, Deerfield and Highland Park departments answered the call. Northbrook was the first to reach the scene, but departed upon the arrival of Deerfield, who took charge.

The fire was confined to the northeast corner and damages estimated about $400.

The house is occupied by Phil Johnson proprietor of restaurant on the corner of Waukegan and County Line road.

Fall Rummage Sale Successful Affair

The fall rummage sale sponsored by the Deerfield P. T. A. on Oct. 17 and 18 was a decidedly successful venture and Mrs. Irving Brand, who was in charge of it and her committee wish to thank all contributors, who made the sale possible. Also Mrs. Moehler, who so kindly donated the use of the store.

A group of the ladies of the American Legion auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. William Tennerman on Wednesday evening and packed clothing to be sent to a family in Bloomington, Ill., which the unit has adopted.

On last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz of Knollwood drive entertained a number of relatives in honor of their son John Robert's second birthday anniversary.

Mrs. E. Ender returned to her home on Tuesday after a four weeks visit with relatives in Rochester, N. Y.

Miss Irene Rockenbach left Monday to spend the week at Oswego, Illinois, where she will teach in a standard leadership training school, under the direction of Kendall County Council of Religious Education.

50 Attend Dinner for Fathers and Son's

Fifty guests attended the Fathers and Son's, (Boy Scouts) dinner held at the Presbyterian church on last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. Koebelin was chairman of a group of eleven women, who served the tasty and delicious meal.

Mr. Derby acted as toastmaster. Mr. Rybolt, scout executive gave an interesting account of scout activities.

An intensely interesting talk was given by James Woodman of Waukegan, whose reminiscences of his boyhood days was a source of great pleasure as well as inspiration to all the scouts. Mr. McGinnis subject was "Companionship between father and son," and was received with great enthusiasm.

Vocal selections by Mrs. M. J. Andrews brought to a close an evening of entertainment, which will long be remembered by both father and son.

Past Officers Are Honored at Meeting

Past Worthy Matron's and Past Worthy Patron's night was observed in the Deerfield O. E. S. chapter on last Thursday evening.

Miss Emilie Knaak, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brace of Highland Park were the honored guests.

Miss Emilie Knaak acted as Worthy Matron for the evening, E. H. Selig, Harold Vant, and Chas. Steiner were Worthy Patrons.

One hundred guests attended. Following the ceremonies delicious refreshments were served on tables beautifully decorated.

Young People's Rally in Waukegan Sunday

On Sunday, Oct. 26, a rally of the young people of Lake county churches will be held at the First M. E. Church of Waukegan. Beginning at 2:30 p.m. an international program will be given. The speakers will be young people from the different continents outside of America.

A fellowship supper will be served at the church and the evening mass meeting will be addressed by Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, one of the world's noblest women. She will speak on Internationalism.

Many Lake county churches are adjourning their evening services so that their young people and leaders may take advantage of this rare opportunity to hear great speakers.

This program has been arranged by the Lake County Council of Religious Education.

Serve Dinner Saturday

A group of O. E. S. chapter women with Mrs. Chas. Steiner as chairman served a six o'clock dinner to the members of the Deerfield lodge No. 1110 A. F. & A. M. and their guests on Saturday evening when Past Master's night was observed.