

Very Pretty Autumn Wedding Was Held Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. William C. Powell, 328 Park avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Gwendolyn James, to Mr. George Howard Roscoe of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roscoe of Blue Island on Saturday, October the twenty-fifth at four o'clock.

The soft strains of the harp played by the bride's cousin, Miss Blossom Bacon of Ann Arbor, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Thomas Tanlyn of Beverly Hills, announced the approach of the bridal party.

The ribbons were stretched by little Natalie Nickell, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Nickell, the matron of honor, and Master Richard Holden of Ravinia, and through this aisle came first Mrs. Nickell and then the bride on the arm of her cousin, Mr. James Nickell, who gave her in marriage. They were met by Mr. Roscoe and his best man, Mr. Clifton Scott of Chicago.

The ceremony performed by Rev. Frank Fitt before an altar of white and green, amidst chrysanthemums and roses, flickering candle light and waning afternoon shadows will be a long remembered one. The beautiful bronze and yellow shades of chrysanthemums were combined with roses and the green of trailing vines in the rooms, while in the dining room bride's roses formed the center piece on the table.

The bride's gown was a very lovely model of d' Alencon lace and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Nickell wore brown velvet combined with brown lace and carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Powell was lovely in her mauve gown of embossed chiffon and Mrs. Roscoe, mother of the groom, was very charming in black lace.

The wedding, followed by a small reception, was attended by about one hundred and fifty guests including many from out of town, among whom were the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Nickell of Springfield, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nickell and Natalie, Mr. Howard Nickell, Mrs. Ross Wilbur, Mrs. Carl Sawyer and Mrs. Morgan Butler of Waukesha, Mrs. E. A. Bouer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brumder and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ross of Milwaukee; Mrs. A. V. Lee and Miss Veina Lee of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Redecker and Mrs. W. E. Bosworth of Elgin, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Durkee of Lake Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe left by motor for New Orleans and from there will cross to Cuba to remain for some time. They will be at home in Milwaukee after December 1.

During her residence in Highland Park, Mrs. Roscoe has made many friends and will be greatly missed by them as well as by the various organizations and philanthropies in which she was interested.
