Bryn Mawr Group to Present Kedroff Quartet for Benefit

The Bryn Mawr Alumnae on the North Shore are planning a benefit concert to be given by the Keproff quartet in the auditorium of New Trier school Monday evening, Nov. 10. Among the women who are interested in the success of the concert are, Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. John Bigler, Mrs. Clyde Carr, Mrs. Charles Haffner, Jr., Mrs. Frank Harkness, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. James L. Houghteling, Mrs. James F. Porter, Mrs. Henry L. Stout.

Arrangements for the concert are in charge of Mrs. John F. Manierre, president of the Bryn Mawr club, and Mrs. Michael W. Straus, chairman of the scholarship committee. The proceeds will go toward the scholarship fund.

The Kedroff quartet has been called by Chalkapin "a miracle of vocal art." These four Russian men have sung together for a number of years. Each one is a distinguished musician, and their voices are perfectly blended together. The quartet was founded in St. Petersburg, Russia, and was the favorite ensemble of the late Czar. Since then it has toured Europe many times and comes to the United States for its fourth season, and has everywhere been received with the greatest enthusiasm.

Tickets may be purchased at Gsell's drug stores in Highland Park and Ravinia.
