CIRCUIT THEATRE PLANS GO FORWARD

ford, Nellie's uncle, and the role of Tom Bedford, Nellie's poor, crippled cousin, will be played by Miss Helen Goldstein of Highland Park, whose playing of the role of "Sister" in the last season's production of "The Lady Next Door" won for her the name of a very capable young juvenile. Mrs. Norman MacLeish of Winnetka is to play the very important role of the villain's rich aunt.

The comedy parts in this production of "Nellie" will be played by Milton Klee of Glencoe and Miss Jane Gray Doty of Evanston.

Completing the group already in rehearsal are Mrs. Benjamin M. Price of Winnetka and Francis G. Fabian of Evanston. Each of them play several small but important roles. Several small parts remain to be filled, and any who especially wish to take part in the production of this hearty melodrama of 1880 are invited to call at the studio at once.

Prospects Improve

The subscription campaign of the season will officially end on Nov. 1. It has been conducted in each town by a local committee, and Mrs. W. C. Shipnes has been chosen chairman in Highland Park and Mrs. Harold Ambler in Lake Forest. Due to the paralyzing effect of the national economic situation, the Circuit theatre has been having an entirely up-hill climb toward balancing its budget for the year, but word from the manager is that results of the past week have done much to remove the doubts as to the future.

SCOUT CAMPERS AND FATHERS IN REUNION

with their old favorite "Whoopee Ki-Yi, Yo-Ho."

George Bersch, chairman of the meeting, in a short talk brought out some of the more serious things done at Camp Makajawan describing the day's program and some of the worthwhile accomplishments of camp. Mr. Frank Kreusch was called upon to tell one of his favorite camp stories, you know the kind that are hard to believe—"whoppers" they call them. A typical campfire comedy stunt, "Lily of the Alley" was put on by the Order of the Arrow scouts.

To climax the evening's program Chief Whirling Thunder of the Winnebago tribe, who was on the camp staff appeared in costume to put on the "Brave Heart," Indian dance, making a very impressive ending to the interesting evening.

The dinner was prepared and served by Mrs. Wright and her staff of the Deerfield-Shields high school dining room. Much praise is extended her by the scouts and dads for the fine meal and dining room management.

members of Troop 48 are cordially invited to attend the regular troop meeting this week which will be held at the American Legion headquarters at 7:30 p.m.

At this meeting several scout games will be played and the movies taken at Camp Makajawan will be shown for the first time to any troop. The movies will be followed by songs and refreshments.

See Northwestern Game

Twenty-two scouts from Troop 30, Elm Place school, Highland Park attended the Northwestern-Centre game last Saturday under the leadership of their scoutmaster. Mr. John Udell. The group traveled in cars furnished them by the courtesy of Mr. St. Peter, troop committee chairman; Mrs. S. A. St. Peter, and Mr. Walter Cope, committeemen, who drove the boys to the game.
